THE CITY

Tourismus Salzburg GmbH

Salzburg was originally known as Juvavum, a trading stop on one of the Roman Empire's most important routes. It declined during hard times after the Goths' attack on Rome, and as the western part of the empire declined, so did Salzburg. All that remained was a small village.

In 696 AD the city was revived. Bishop Rupert was so fond of the area's beauty that he re-named it Salzburg after the river Salzach and made it an Episcopal See. His successors, the bishops Wolf Dietrich, Markus Sittikusand, and Paris Lodron, were instrumental in creating the Salzburg we know today, especially its majestic Baroque churches, palaces, and castles. Most of the cultural treasures, including the Altstadt (the Old Town) and the Hohensalzburg fortress, are in the western part of the city known as Salzachufer.

One of the world's most outstanding geniuses, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, was born here in 1756. His place of birth, Hagenauer Haus, still stands to this day.

After World War II, Salzburg became one of Austria's most important commercial centres as well as one of its largest tourist destinations. One of the major reasons was the 1964 film, "The Sound of Music".

Salzburg Easter Festival

Since being founded by Herbert von Karajan in 1967, the Easter Festival has been an integral component of the Salzburg events calendar. Providing a complement to the Salzburg Festival during the summer months, in this case, the primary focus is on opera. The Easter Festival begins on the Saturday before Palm Sunday and lasts until Easter Monday.

Salzburg Whitsun Festival

In addition to the Easter- and Summer Festivals, Salzburg has also featured the Whitsun Festival since 1973. In this case, Herbert von Karajan's original idea was to give those people who had not been able to obtain tickets for the Easter Festival an opportunity to listen to acclaimed international orchestras between Whit Saturday and Whit Monday.

DO & SEE

Tourismus Salzburg GmbH

The medieval and baroque area of the city holds the esteemed status of a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage site, boasting an array of impressive historical landmarks, museums, and other attractions.

Take a stroll along the banks of the River Salzach and immerse yourself in the town's rich history while also catching glimpses of contemporary architecture and the modern world.

Fortress Hohensalzburg perches regally at the top of the 'Festungsberg' and is one of the largest fortified defence systems in Europe. Gazing down to the foot of the Mönchsberg visitors see the festival district and the large festival hall, Felsenreitschule riding school built into the mountainside, and the 'Haus für Mozart'.

The Getreidegasse is a well-known attraction and is one of the most attractive and heavily frequented shopping streets in the world. A stone's throw away is the Salzburg Cathedral with its imposing dome and magnificent facade made of marble hewn from the Untersberg.

Altstadt

The majority of Salzburg's tourist attractions can be found in Altstadt, the Old Town. However, the charm of the area itself is, perhaps, the biggest draw of all. Altstadt is a recognised UNESCO world heritage site that brims with quaint squares, graceful fountains, Baroque churches, charming medieval structures, wrought iron signs, and much more.

Festung Hohensalzburg

Perched atop the Festungsberg at an elevation of 506 metres, Hohensalzburg Fortress stands as an expansive medieval stronghold. Commissioned by the prince-archbishops of Salzburg, this grand fortress spans an impressive length of 250 metres and a width of 150 metres, making it one of Europe's largest medieval castles. Ascend to Hohensalzburg Fortress via the cableway and be treated to awe-inspiring vistas. To the north, the city reveals its array of church spires, while to the south, the majestic Alps paint a breathtaking backdrop.

DINING

Tourismus Salzburg GmbH

Eating and drinking in Salzburg are pleasures of the highest order. The immense variety of options includes beer gardens, traditional coffee houses, award-winning restaurants, bars, and cosy taverns.

There is an incredible range of restaurants and food outlets in the city, so connoisseurs, nibblers, and nightclubbers can all be sure of finding something to suit their tastes.

People eating out have some tough decisions to make in Salzburg as the county boasts a higher density of award-winning restaurants than any other Austrian province. Salzburg is also a pioneer of the organic food revolution. Around 38% of the agricultural operations here are run by certified Bio farmers. This enables the countless simple, down-to-earth restaurants and inns to serve Salzburg specialities that really do come from Salzburg.

Four very special breweries in the city offer delicious and hearty meals as well as snacks in a convivial atmosphere.

Visitors looking for a snack can look into one of the delicatessens in the heart of the Old Town, take a stroll around the Grünmarkt, or try the produce at the farmers' markets held once a week on the Mirabellplatz and Papagenoplatz squares.

Augustiner Bräu

Augustiner Bräu is the largest brewery tavern in all of Austria and boasts an enchanting beer garden surrounded by lush greenery. Guests queue up for a beer in the brewery, which is served straight from wooden beer barrels, while hungry visitors stroll up and down the 'Schmankerlgang' hallway to choose from a wide range of typical fare at the various kiosks.

CAFÉS

Oliver Kujundzic/Pexels (cropped)

Salzburg is renowned for its vibrant café scene and rich coffee culture. The city boasts a multitude of charming cafés, each with its unique ambience and character. Whether you prefer the historic coffee houses that have stood the test of time or the trendy and modern cafés, Salzburg has something for everyone.

As you sip your cup of coffee, be sure to indulge in the culinary delights that accompany it. Treat yourself to a delectable pastry or sample traditional Austrian desserts like the famous Sacher torte, fluffy Salzburger Nockerl, or the irresistible Apfelstrudel.

Café Sacher at Hotel Sacher

The name says it all. Pastry shops all over the world bake the famous Sacher cakes, but this is the place to try the original. It is worth noting that this is only a branch of the famous hotel in Vienna, but the recipe is the same.

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

Tourismus Salzburg GmbH

Salzburg has, surprisingly, a large selection of bars. Just as with the restaurants, the best experience is at one of the traditional bars. In other words, head for Salzburg's wonderful beer gardens, the Biergarten. Try Augustiner Bräu on Augustinergasse 4, whose beer is still brewed by monks or the Stiegl-Keller at Festungsgasse 10, part of the Stiegl brewery, with postcard-perfect views.

Watzmann Cultbar

The Watzmann in Salzburg is particularly well known for its wonderful garden in which guests can unwind under palm trees on a balmy summer evening. You're sure to find your favourite cocktail on the comprehensive drinks list.

SHOPPING

cc0/Pxfuel

Shopping in Salzburg is an experience in itself. Visitors can choose from boutiques, fashionable flagship stores, shopping centres, and traditional family-owned businesses.

Obviously, Salzburg offers the usual range of designer brands, streetwear and traditional shops. However, for those looking for something a little out-of-the-ordinary there are also fashion accessories with typical alpine flair, as well as traditional 'tracht' styles and lederhosen — and don't forget to round off the day with a bag or box of delicious chocolate-dipped marzipan Mozartkugels.

Salzburger Heimatwerk

Since 1946, Salzburger Heimatwerk has been dedicated to preserving and promoting the region's rich folk culture through costumes, customs, and handicrafts. Housed under the majestic vaults of the historic New Residenz, their impressive tailoring and dressmaking workshop creates exceptional dirndls and traditional costumes. They exclusively utilise the finest hand-woven and hand-printed fabrics, sourced from local artisans, to highlight their artistry and expertise. Their diverse selection, ranging from luxurious silk to textured linen, showcases the variety of materials used in traditional costume-making. In addition, Heimatwerk takes pride in presenting exquisite designer products and stylish leather clothing, adding an elegant touch to their collection.

Der Grünmarkt

Located next to the Collegiate Church on Universitätsplatz, the colourful Grünmarkt (Green Market) has been a bustling gathering place since 1857. Every day, except on Sundays and public holidays, you can browse here and find almost everything you desire — from fresh bread and baked goods to meat and fish, as well as an abundance of fruits, vegetables, and even wooden toys.

Kirchtag

For over 100 years, the Kirchtag family has upheld the artistry of umbrella making, producing stylish and individually crafted pieces in the heart of Getreidegasse. They also cater to the demand for unique and personalised umbrellas, offering customisation options such as matching ties, golden bonnet embroidery, and wedding umbrellas. In addition to umbrellas, their product range encompasses a wide selection of garden umbrellas, sun shades, leather goods, bags, gloves, and walking sticks, serving both functional and fashionable purposes.

Knopferlmayer

The gentle charm of the display windows looking out onto Rathausplatz can hardly begin to betray the cornucopia of treasures within. The Mayer family has ruled over an emporium for handicraft utensils, decorative lace borders, and buttons for almost 250 years — the latter product being of significance above and beyond its place in the company's name. Countless organised boxes contain an immense number and variety of buttons, probably unrivalled within and far beyond the borders of Austria.

Lederhaus Schliesselberger

Situated on the historic Lederergasse Lane, 'Lederhaus Schliesselberger' is a leather goods shop with a rich legacy. As a family-owned business since 1422, it has stood the test of time, preserving the artistry and craftsmanship of leatherworking.

Originally established as a tannery, Lederhaus Schliesselberger played a pivotal role in the dyeing of leather until the turn of the 20th century. With the finest materials and meticulous attention to detail, they produced high-quality leather that garnered admiration far and wide. As the years passed, the focus shifted towards selling the finished leather to cater to the evolving needs of the community.

For seven decades, the skilled artisans of Lederhaus Schliesselberger set up shop in the Maxglan area, dedicating themselves to the production of exceptional leather goods. Today, Lederhaus Schliesselberger proudly offers a diverse portfolio of leather goods and travel cases. Beyond their own creations, the shop also trades in a wide range of leather, furs, and a variety of footwear supplies.

Sporer Likör- & Punschmanufaktur

Built in 1407, the narrowest building in the Getreidegasse, next to what is now the Blaue Gans art hotel, is home to Sporer's specialist wine and spirits shop. It was founded in 1903 and is now run by the third and fourth generations of the Sporer family.

Popular classics include the 'Hausmischung', made according to family recipes handed down across generations, a fine herb liqueur, and an orange punch concentrate made according to grandmother's own recipe dating back to 1927. Connoisseurs appreciate the selection of wines chosen by certified sommelier Michael Sporer.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Tourismus Salzburg GmbH

Whether you are planning a vacation, a special weekend or a business meeting, rest assured, you will have a great time in Salzburg. The city offers a wide range of accommodation to suit all needs.

TOURIST INFORMATION

Passport / Visa

Austria can be visited visa-free for up to 90 days by citizens of most European countries, Australia, New Zealand, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, Malaysia, Israel, UAE and most countries in America. If you are unsure whether or not you need to apply for a visa, we recommend contacting the embassy or consulate in your country. International (non-Schengen) travellers need a passport that is valid for at least 3 months after the end of their intended trip in order to enter the Schengen zone. Citizens of Schengen countries can travel without a passport but must have a valid ID with them during their stay.

Salzburg Airport (SZG)

Salzburg Airport (SZG) is situated 4 km away from the German border and 4 km from the city centre of Salzburg. Convenient public buses operate on a regular schedule, connecting Salzburg Airport, the main train station, and the city centre. Bus number 2 runs every 15 to 20 minutes throughout the week, providing transportation between Salzburg Main Station and the airport. On Sundays and public holidays, the bus frequency is every 20 minutes. The journey typically takes approximately 23 minutes.

For those preferring taxi services, both Salzburg's main railway station and the airport terminal offer dedicated taxi stands. The travel time from the airport to the railway station is around 15 to 20 minutes.

Public Transport

Salzburg takes pride in its environmentally friendly public transportation system, which features electric trolleys and buses. The trolleys operate every 10 minutes during the day, while regular buses generally come every 15 minutes. During the summer holidays from July to August, a special timetable is implemented. At night, NachtStern and Bustaxi services are available.

To save on fares, it is advisable to purchase single tickets or 24-hour tickets for the central zone in advance. These tickets can be bought from numerous kiosks ("Trafiken") throughout Salzburg or ticket machines. The 24-hour ticket offers great value as it grants unlimited travel within the entire city. If you plan to stay in Salzburg for more than 4 days, purchasing a weekly pass is highly recommended. Remember to validate all advance tickets on the first trip in the vehicle.
