

Photo: xbrchx/Shutterstock.com

Leonid Andronov/Shutterstock.com

xbrchx/Shutterstock.com

xbrchx/Shutterstock.com

The coastline of the Atlantic Sea cradles the elegance of the historical city of Split. Chosen by the Roman emperor Diocletian as his residence, Split accommodates his giant palace — an intricate complex of quaint alleys and squares with over 1700 years of history, — a real city within a city.

While the charm of the historic sites captivates many holidaymakers who flock to Split throughout the hot Croatian summer, the unspoiled nature and crystalline waters just make them fall in love.

Featured

Gregory of Nin Statue

Nothing extremely thrilling can be said about this statue, which, located in...

Bakvice Beach

Bakvice is the closest beach to downtown Split and, though it gets extremely...

Riva Waterfront

The fashionable Riva waterfront boardwalk is where to be headed for a stroll...

Ivan Meštrović Gallery

The Ivan Meštrović Gallery is a neoclassical building originally intended to...

Podrum — Cellars of Diocle...

The ancient prison, a tangle of underground chambers concealed underneath th...

Top 5

Diocletian's Palace

Diocletian's Palace is the city's pride and glory — it houses the alleys and...

Cathedral of St Domnius

Situated within the Diocletan Palace's walls, St Domnious Cathedral is shrou...

Narodni Trg — People's Square

Narodni Trg, the pulsing heart of the city, buzzes with life and artistic la...

Croatian Maritime Museum

Rich in archaeological finds and artefacts, the Croatian Maritime Museum is ...

Archaeological Museum

The Archaeological Museum boasts a comprehensive display of Illyrian, Greek ...

THE CITY

Leonid Andronov/Shutterstock.com

Split is the second largest city in Croatia. In the summer, it is a dynamic and vibrant holiday resort. Its pulsating heart is the compact Old Town, composed of orderly streets and monuments of the imposing Roman emperor's abode.

Just a stone's throw away from the Palace, Riva, the evocative seafront promenade, runs parallel to the city in a hub of activities that buzzes with life from the early hours — replete with shops, cafes and bars, the seafront boardwalk is where both locals and tourists congregate day and night, mingling and mixing.

If the city centre and the crowded beaches have become a major draw for tourists, Split peninsula is where serenity reign supreme and the backdrop of Mediterranean flora shapes the atmosphere.

DO & SEE

anshar/Shutterstock.com

The ancient walls of the Old City encircle squares, crescents and architectural beauties that create a cultural hub for the travellers to discover. Split has a rich history that is apparent to everyone who sets foot in the city. Here you will find historical sites as The Cathedral Of St. Domnius, the main part of which dates to the 4th century CE; Pjaca Clock Tower and Diocletian's Palace to name a few.

Besides the treasure of the magnificent past, Split also offers the timeless beauty of nature: its crystalline waters, long stretches of white beaches and the green oasis embedded at the tip of the peninsula are a major draw for nature lovers, offering hundreds of options for outdoor activities or water-sports.

Thanks to its stunning surroundings the captivating city of Split has fully embraced tourism, creating a destination where its natural peculiarities have been enhanced by vibrant of bars, restaurants, shops and cultural institutions.

Diocletian's Palace

Diocletian's Palace is the city's pride and glory — it houses the alleys and squares that compose the Old Town. Built for the Emperor Diocletian back in the 4th century CE, it boasts an impressive figure and a well-preserved building. As you walk through the Bronze Gate, a stunning view of the Palace will be disclosed to the eyes, revealing the magnificent ancient fortress.

The ancient fortress is not just a dusty monument. It has become a vibrant neighbourhood with many shops, cafes and restaurants, as well as some apartments. Around 3,000 people live on the territory of Diocletian's palace today.

In the popular HBO show Game of Thrones, Diocletian's Palace doubles as the city of Meereen.

Photo: RossHelen/Shutterstock.com
Address: Dioklecijanov palača, Kraj Svetog Duje, Split
Internet: www.diocletianspalace.org

Cathedral of St Domnius

Situated within the Diocletian Palace's walls, St Domnius Cathedral is shrouded in history. Created as a mausoleum, it is currently one of the oldest Catholic Cathedral still in use and, with its peculiar octagonal-shaped building, it has an immeasurable artistic value. It was in this Cathedral that the remains of the Emperor disappeared after having had rested there for 170 years.

Photo: Natalia Bratslavsky/Shutterstock.com
Address: Katedrala Svetog Duje, Ulica Kraj Svetog Duje 5, Split
Internet: www.smn.hr/split-katedrala
More Info: The Cathedral is known locally as the Sveti Dujam or Sveti Duje

Narodni Trg — People's Square

Narodni Trg, the pulsing heart of the city, buzzes with life and artistic landmarks. The iconic Clock Tower and the majestic Town Hall (which has been turned into an ethnographic museum) dominate the square.

Perfect for a leisurely stroll, it also features dainty cafeterias and bars.

Photo: Tupungato/Shutterstock.com
Address: Narodni trg, Split
More Info: Locals usually refer to the square as Pjaca

Croatian Maritime Museum

Rich in archaeological finds and artefacts, the Croatian Maritime Museum is located inside the 17th century Gripe Fortress. Catch a glimpse of the artistic beauties long lost in sea. The exhibitions show that the maritime community had a major influence throughout the Adriatic Sea.

Photo: GoodMood Photo/Shutterstock.com
Address: Hrvatski pomorski muzej u Splitu, Ulica Glagoljaska 18, Split
Opening hours: November–April: Mon, Wed, Fri & Sat 9am–4pm; Tue & Thu 9am–7pm; Sun closed. May–October: Mon–Sat 9am–8pm; Sun closed
Phone: +385 21 347 346
Internet: www.hpms.hr

Email: hpms@hpms.hr

Archaeological Museum

The Archaeological Museum boasts a comprehensive display of Illyrian, Greek and Roman artefacts, offering a complete overview of the region's history. One of the highlights of the visit is the library with 30,000 books regarding archaeology and history.

Photo: Faraways/Shutterstock.com

Address: Arheoloski Muzej Split, Ulica Stjepana Gunjace, Split

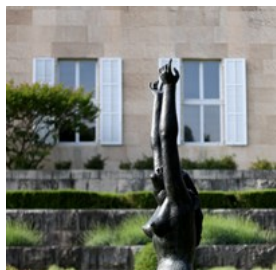

Opening hours: Summer: Mon-Fri 9am-1pm / 5pm-8pm; Sat 9am-2pm; Sun closed. Winter: Mon-Fri 9am-4pm, Sat 9am-2pm, Sun closed

Phone: +385 21 323 901

Internet: www.mhas-split.hr/en

Email: muzej-has1@st.t-com.hr

Ivan Meštrović Gallery

The Ivan Meštrović Gallery is a neoclassical building originally intended to be the home of the famous artist, now housing an impressive collection of his artworks. The permanent display features beautiful architectural projects, drawings and sculptures.

Photo: Jelena990/Shutterstock.com

Address: Šetalište Ivana Meštrovica 46, Split

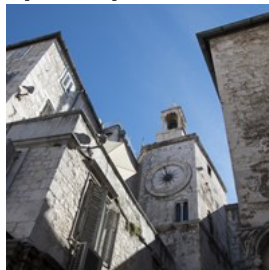

Opening hours: Tue-Sat 9am-4pm, Sun 10am-3pm, Mon closed

Phone: +385 21 340 800

Internet: www.mestrovic.hr/en/home-en

Email: mim@mestrovic.hr

Split City Museum

The Split City Museum houses a great collection that presents the cultural and historical heritage of Split, giving an expansive glimpse into the city's past. Including sculptures, paintings and diverse artworks, it is set in a 14th century palace. Guided tours can be arranged in advance.

Photo: Vadim Po/Shutterstock.com

Address: Muzej grada Splita, Ulica Papaliceva 1, Split

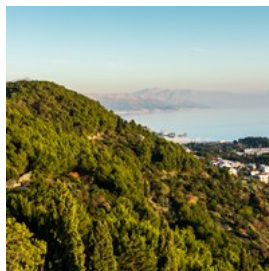

Opening hours: Mon- Fri 9am-6pm, Sat & Sun 10am-2pm

Phone: +385 21 360 171

Internet: www.mgst.net

Email: muzej-grada-st@st.htnet.hr

Marjan Forest Park

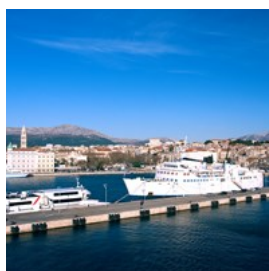

A sweeping portion of Split peninsula is covered by a thick Mediterranean flora that creates the Marjan Forest Park. An intricate knot of walking paths, jogging trails, lookout points, a botanical garden and more attracts hiking enthusiasts and everyone who wants a respite from the busy city life.

Photo: Dreamer4787/Shutterstock.com

Address: Park Šuma Marjan (Marjan Forest Park), Split

Boat Trips

Jadrolinija ferry terminal and surrounding piers are a gateway to the surrounding islands. Hvar is one of the most coveted destinations with historical sites and beautiful beaches. Brač, a white, pebbly beach, perfect for surfing, follows right after Hvar, whereas Korkula Island is mostly visited for its medieval towers and walls. Package tours will gladly take you to several islands in just one day.

Photo: Phant/Shutterstock.com
Internet: www.croatiaferries.com

Bakvice Beach

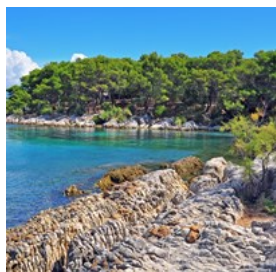

Bakvice is the closest beach to downtown Split and, though it gets extremely crowded over summer, is a delightful spot to relax under the hot sun. Hide from the heat and rehydrate at any of the numerous quaint cafes frequented by locals playing picigin, a ball game that sees its origin here in Split.

Photo: YanLev/Shutterstock.com
Address: Bakvice Beach, Split

Bene Beach

A secluded cove in the northern coast of Marjan Forest Park — Bene Beach doesn't resemble the sandy Croatian beaches but boasts its one-of-a-kind charm. A long excursion through the forest will lead you to its pebbly seafront, where you can rest your feet in the clear water surrounded by untouched nature. A restaurant is also located a few steps away.

Photo: Arseniy Krasnevsky/Shutterstock.com
Address: Kupalište Bene (Bene Beach), Marjan Forest Park, Split
More Info: The beach offers lifeguards, toilets, showers and changing facilities.

Pjaca Clock Tower

Dominating Nardoni Trg, Pjaca Clock Tower imposes its figure with its impressive 1700 years of history. The tower's impressive height can be walked up a steep stairway, that culminates in a breath-taking view of the Old Town and its vibrant flow of people. The tower features a 24-hour clock face signed with Roman numerals.

Photo: Ante Perkovic/Wikimedia Commons (cropped & colour-corrected)(image cropped)

Address: Next to the Iron Gate (Porta Ferrea), Ulica Ispod ure 1, Split

Riva Waterfront

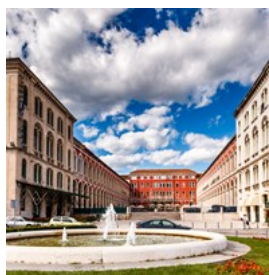

The fashionable Riva waterfront boardwalk is where to be headed for a stroll, blessed by the sound of the waves crushing to the shore and the scent of seaweed in the air. The seafront promenade offers coffee shops and bars, representing the perfect destination to be seen and to observe the curious stream of people passing by.

Photo: Jelena990/Shutterstock.com
Address: Riva, Split

Trg Republike — Republic Square

Buzzing with people throughout the hot season, Trg Republike (or Republic Square) is where concerts and festivals are held. The square, constructed in a peculiar Venetian style, is a renowned gathering point, as well as a great spot to sip a coffee and sample some traditional cuisine at the quaint eateries and coffee shops.

Photo: anshar/Shutterstock.com
Address: Trg Republike, Split

Gregory of Nin Statue

Nothing extremely thrilling can be said about this statue, which, located in front of the northern gate of the Diocletian Palace, rises up celebrating bishop Grgur (Gregory of Nin) who firmly opposed the Pope and introduced the Croatian language into Catholic services. You may want to stop by though: its well-polished big toe is said to bring good luck for those who rub it.

Photo: LianeM/Shutterstock.com
Address: Spomenik Grguru Ninskomu, Ulica kralja Tomislava, Split

Podrum — Cellars of Diocletian's Palace

The ancient prison, a tangle of underground chambers concealed underneath the Diocletian Palace, is nowadays open only for special events.

The main alley that links the cells together, open daily, treats the tourists with an array of picturesque stalls, well-equipped with souvenirs and artworks of any sort.

In the HBO show Game of Thrones, Daenerys Targaryen locks up her enemies, as well as two of her dragons. These scenes were filmed right here, in the cellars of Diocletian's Palace.

Photo: Michael Gaylard/cc by 2.0/Flickr(image cropped)
Address: Podrum, Diocletian Palace, Split

More Info: You can access Podrum through the Bronze Gate (Mjedna Vrata)

Marmont Street

The most popular shopping area in Split for designer goods is the marble-lined street of Marmont. On Marmontova Ulica (as it is known in Croatian), you will find jewellery, clothes, shoes and other goods from artisanal and mass market brands. The street, stretching from the Old Palace, is reserved for pedestrians. Check out the over 100-year-old pharmacy Varoš, as well as art galleries and a popular fish market.

Photo: Tours in Croatia/CC BY 2.0/Flickr(image cropped)
Address: Marmontova Ulica, Split

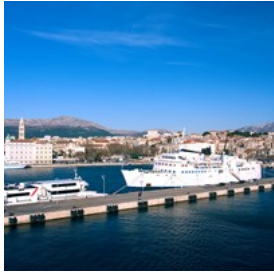

TOURS & ACTIVITIES

Zhivko Dimitrov/unsplash.com

You already know that most travellers come to Split to see the Old Town and take the sun by the Adriatic Sea. By all means, take it slow and find peace on among the narrow streets and along the seafront. Once you have found your zen, why not opt in for a dose of excitement and perhaps even leave your comfort zone — pick one of the many tours to make your trip memorable. Your time in Split will never be boring!

Boat Trips

Jadrolinija ferry terminal and surrounding piers are a gateway to the surrounding islands. Hvar is one of the most coveted destinations with historical sites and beautiful beaches. Brač, a white, pebbly beach, perfect for surfing, follows right after Hvar, whereas Korkula Island is mostly visited for its medieval towers and walls. Package tours will gladly take you to several islands in just one day.

Photo: Phant/Shutterstock.com
Internet: www.croatiaferries.com

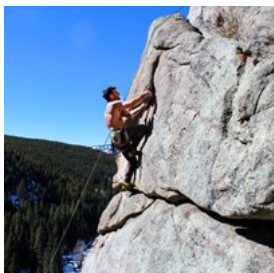

Game of Thrones Tour

Croatian towns and natural vistas were extensively featured in the hit HBO series Game of Thrones — many of scenes from seasons 3, 4, 5 and 6 were filmed in Split. Follow the lead of a knowledgeable guide and discover where many of the scenes were shot. Don't miss out on the opportunity to take awesome selfies and feel not only the weight of the hundreds of years of history, but also that of the most influential pop-culture product of this millennium.

Photo: dronepicr/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)
Address: Gecko Tours Office, Ulica Čulića dvori 6, Split

Rock Climbing Tour

If you are looking for a more active and adventurous experience than most, take advantage of the Croatian natural beauty from an unusual vantage point — go rock climbing. Marjan Hill is a popular climbing area that offers more than 80 different routes for climbers of various backgrounds and skill levels. Naturally, all essential climbing gear is provided.

Photo: Connor Moynihan/unsplash.com
Address: Given2Fly Adventures, Ulica Plinarska 25, Split
Internet: splitadventure.com/rock-climbing-split

Cooking Class & Walking Tour

Take a holistic approach to exploring Croatian cuisine! Start by visit the green market and sampling local products and baked goodies. After whetting your appetite, meet with a local chef to create a three-course meal — before sitting down to dine on your creation. Not only will you get an excellent meal, but will also learn new cooking techniques and form lasting memories about your time in Split.

Photo: Edgar Castrejon/unsplash.com
Address: Gecko tours doo, Ulica Čulića dvori 6, Split
Internet: www.instagram.com/p/CqDH_1ksxIw

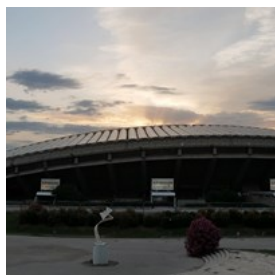

Plitvice Lakes National Park

The UNESCO-listed landscapes of the Plitvice Lakes National Park look like they are taken straight from a postcard. The magnificent tree-lined Upper Lakes (Gornja Jezera) and the awe-inspiring Veliki Slap — Croatia's biggest waterfall — will leave you speechless. You can go on a cruise around the Lower Lakes (Donja Jezera) to make your trip extra special.

Photo: Ilya Grigorik/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)
Internet: np-plitvicka-jezera.hr/en

Poljud Stadium Rooftop Free Fall Experience

Poljud Stadium — a national landmark of the Croatian contemporary architecture — invites adrenaline lovers to view the sunset from its rooftop. Make the evening extra memorable by plunging into free fall on a 70 m rope swing.

Photo: Zvone00/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)

Address: Stadion Poljud , 8 Mediteranskih Igara 2, Split

Internet: skywalk-poljud.com

All-Terrain Vehicle Safari

Explore Dalmatia's world-famous natural landscapes driving an ATV quad bike. Cruise along off-road trails for unique insight into the country's mountains, rivers, and countryside. Find the most picturesque spot for a picnic style lunch.

Photo: Spencer Davis/unsplash.com

Internet: www.asteria-adventures.com

DINING

canvaspix/shutterstock.com

Combining the cornerstones of the Dalmatian cuisine with the famously healthy Mediterranean culinary traditions, Split's culinary heritage is a perfectly balanced blend of authentic flavours. The proximity to the Adriatic Sea makes Split a destination where sampling seafood dishes is a must.

Some of Split's best restaurants can be found outskirts of the Old Town as well as inside of the Old Town, boasting a fine array of eateries ranging from down-to-earth traditional taverns to upscale restaurants serving fusion cuisine.

Konoba Kod Joze

A 10 minute walk northeast of the Old Town gets you to one of the best seafood restaurants in town. An intimate and friendly atmosphere, the cosy, rustic interior paired with delicious Dalmatian cuisine — that's Konoba Kod Joze for you. On hot summer nights, the restaurant's terrace donates a magical touch to the evening.

Photo: Marko Poplasen / Shutterstock.com

Address: Ulica Sredmanuška 4, Split

Phone: +358 21 347 397

Internet: www.instagram.com/konobakodjoze

Galija

Galija is a small restaurant with wooden benches and an attentive service that has gained an excellent reputation for its delicious pizza.

Located in the western part of the Old Town in a quiet picturesque alley.

Photo: eldar nurkovic/Shutterstock.com

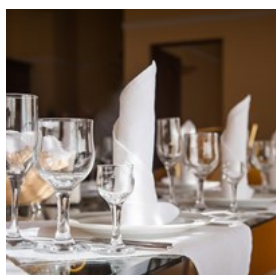

Address: Ulica Tončićeva 12, Split

Opening hours: Daily 11am-11pm

Phone: +385 21 347 932

Internet: www.pizzeriagalija.com

Boban

Boban is a smart and trendy restaurant that serves elegantly presented seafood dishes and treats its guests to an extensive wine list. Their philosophy is to mix traditional cuisine with modern flavours, adjusting old time classics with a touch of creativity.

Photo: Tymonko Galyna / Shutterstock.com

Address: Ulica Petra Hektorovića 49, Split

Opening hours: Mon-Fri 11am-midnight, Sat & Sun noon-midnight

Phone: +385 21 543 300

Internet: www.restaurant-boban.com

Email: info@restaurant-boban.com

Villa Spiza

A feast of seafood specialties and delicious Mediterranean dishes cooked to perfection — Villa Spiza offers a comprehensive sample of authentic Croatian cuisine. Extremely atmospheric and with a peculiar rustic touch throughout, Villa Spiza won't disappoint.

Photo: g-stockstudio / Shutterstock.com

Address: Ulica Petra Kružića 3, Split

Perivoj

A dreamlike setting and an outside seating area that revolves around an extraordinary fountain shape the dining experience at Perivoj. The romantic allure of the villa is combined with traditional Croatian dishes and an outstanding service, representing one of the best eateries in town.

Photo: claudiah / Shutterstock.com

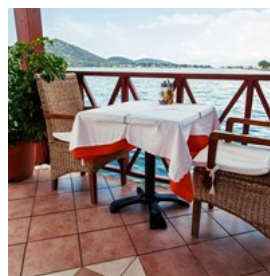

Address: Ulica Slaviceva 44, Split

Opening hours: Daily 7am-1am

Phone: +385 958 208 070

Internet: www.instagram.com/restoran_kavana_perivoj

Dvor

Dvor is situated slightly off the beaten path and away from the crowd of tourists that mill around the Old Town. The advantageous uphill location makes the restaurant a perfect spot for panoramic views of the Mediterranean Sea.

Photo: Anatoly Vartanov / Shutterstock.com

Address: Put Firula 14, Split

Opening hours: Daily 8am-midnight

Phone: +385 21 571 513

Internet: www.instagram.com/dvor.split

More Info: Seafood, Grill, Mediterranean cuisine

Apetit

Restaurant-bistro Apetite is located in the old centre of Split, within the walls of the Papalićeva palace. The elegant Mediterranean interior is complemented with aromas of local cuisine. The freshly caught seafood and vegetables grown locally donate the extra touch to dishes that blend tradition with innovative techniques.

Photo: Iakov Filimonov / Shutterstock.com
Address: Ulica Pavla Šubića 2, Split
Opening hours: Daily 9am-midnight
Phone: +385 21 332 549
Internet: apetit-split.hr
Email: apetit.split@gmail.com

Pizzeria Portas

The best pizza in town resides within the name of Portas, a pizza restaurant that will certainly satisfy the Italian cuisine aficionados. The atmospheric courtyard is covered in lush vines — the perfect setting for a date.

Photo: Varavin88 / Shutterstock.com
Address: Ulica Zlatnih Vrata 1, Split
Opening hours: Daily noon-10pm
Phone: +385 21 482 888
Internet: www.pizzeriaportas.hr/en
More Info: Only open during high season

Brasserie on 7

Featuring a menu that presents classics of the Croatian tradition adjusted through the principles of the French cuisine, Brasseries 7 is a favourite in town. The exquisite terrace that overlooks the Mediterranean Sea offers a fine breakfast spot as well.

Photo: Shebeko / Shutterstock.com
Address: Obala Hrvatskog Narodnog Preporoda 7, Split
Opening hours: Daily 8am-10pm
Phone: +385 21 278 233
Internet: brasserieon7.com

CAFES

K13 ART/Shutterstock.com

Worry not if you can't image life without coffee — Split will take good care of you. The narrow cobbled streets and ancient squares are dotted with quaint cafes. Cafeterias are seen as gathering points in the historical Split and coffee (Kava) is rather strong to keep you going.

The trendy Riva with its sweeping views of the sea is certainly a favourite among-coffee lover. Treat yourself to the atmospheric ambiance and delicious coffee, where the lively crowd passes by leisurely and the marine breeze tickles your nostrils.

The picturesque alleys that run throughout the town are also full of cosy cafeterias, perfectly embodying the laid-back lifestyle of the Croatians.

Bajamonti

The restaurant and cafe is named in honour of Antonio Bajamonti who was the popular Mayor of Split in the 19th century.

Bajamonti serves international breakfast, coffee, Mediterranean, French and Italian specialties and delicious desserts like its widely renowned chocolate mousse.

Photo: Kev Bourne/Public Domain via Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)

Address: Trg Republike 1, Split

Phone: +385 21 341 033

Internet: www.restoran-bajamonti.hr

Email: bajamonti.split@gmail.com

Kavana Procaffe

Kavana is a superb coffee shop with a stunning view over the sea and Kozjak Mountain. The homemade cakes and ice-cream are some of the must-try and a treat that will certainly satisfy your sweet tooth.

Photo: Sandra Seitamaa/unsplash.com

Address: Ulica Špinutska 67, Split

Phone: +385 21 384 323

Caffe Bar Žbirac

A coffee or a beer sipped leisurely on a seaside terrace, tree leaves covering from the scorching sun and nothing to think of besides enjoying the welcoming weather. Cafe Bar Žbirac is where to start the day with an energy boost.

Photo: Grant Durr/unsplash.com

Address: Šetalište Petra Preradovića 5, Split

Phone: +385 91 883 3710

Coffee & Storytelling Walk

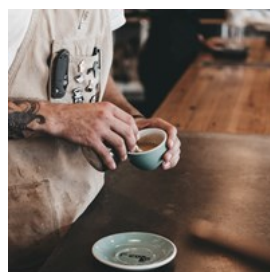

The Coffee & Storytelling tour takes you on a caffeine-backed walk through Split and introduces you to local stories, traditions and beliefs. The local guide will share their favourite coffee spots and the best tips to make your stay unforgettable.

Photo: Nathan Dumlao/unsplash.com

Address: Meeting point: Crkva i samostan sv. Frane, Trg Franje Tuđmana 1, Split

D16 Coffee

D16 Coffee is one of the hippest cafes in town. Top-notch specialty coffee, cosy atmosphere, great environment for catching up on emails during the day and chatting with a special someone in the evening when the lights get dimmed. The cafe is hidden from the busy streets while still being in the very centre.

You can also buy some freshly roasted beans to take home or ask for a coffee to go — cup in hand, head don't to the Split Promenade and enjoy the view over the sea.

Photo: Brent Gorwin/unsplash.com

Address: Ulica Dominisova 16, Split

Opening hours: Daily 7am-9pm

Phone: +385 91 790 0705

Internet: www.d16coffee.com

More Info: Second location at Ujevićeva poljana 3

Oš Kolač

Oš Kolač makes the most impressive cakes — a feast for your eyes and tastebuds. Small in size, this pastel-coloured cafe makes a big impression.

You will want to come back again and again to take advantage of the incredible variety of pastries.

Photo: Sebastian Coman Photography/unsplash.com

Address: Ulica Ćiril Metodova 4, Split

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 9am-9pm, Sun closed

Phone: +385 21 480 444

Internet: www.oskolac.hr/en

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

M.V. Photography/Shutterstock.com

Split is one of the best destinations in Croatia when it comes to nightlife: discover hidden bars and enjoy the vibrant atmosphere while socialising, having a couple of drinks, dancing and overall having a great time. The city breathes with the party spirit wherever you go. Start the night in the trendy Riva and as the night goes on migrate to the Old Town. Get a late dinner at one of the many restaurants. Check out Academia Club Ghetto located inside the Diocletian's Palace — it is known as one of the best clubs in the country.

Split was put on the map as a party town because of the Ultra Europe festival held on stadium Poljud in July. However, the majority of the exciting new clubbing spots keep their doors open off-season. Bars along the Bačvice beachside also stay busy way past midnight over the summer.

Marvlvs Library Jazz Bar

A mixture of young locals and tourists is drawn to Marvlvs jazz club, where an outdoor seating area creates an upbeat atmosphere and good music is the crucial concept. This captivating bar is located in front of the city museum, channeling a XV century atmosphere.

Photo: TZIDO SUN/Shutterstock.com

Address: Ulica Papalićeva 4, Split

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 5pm-midnight

Phone: +385 98 963 7067

Email: marvlvs@yahoo.com

Academia Ghetto Club

A bohemian atmosphere shrouded in passion for love and good music permeates Academia Club Ghetto. The bizarre interiors and the overall vibe are a major draw for dandies and art lovers, seeing the club housing different original artworks.

Photo: Oliver Huitson/Shutterstock.com
Address: Ulica Dosud 10, Split
Opening hours: Mon-Fri 6pm-midnight, Sat & Sun 6pm-1am
Phone: +385 21 346 879

Zinfandel Food & Wine

Light meals, snacks or just a glass of wine — Zinfandel Food & Wine blends the best ingredients with a true passion for attentively selected wine. Try the most flavourful salami and cheese paired with a glass of wine and let yourself enjoying the atmosphere. Don't miss the live music!

Photo: Brent Hofacker/Shutterstock.com
Address: Ulica Marka Marulica 2, Split
Opening hours: Mon-Sat noon-midnight
Phone: +385 21 355 135
Internet: www.zinfandelfoodandwinebar.com

Tennis Bar

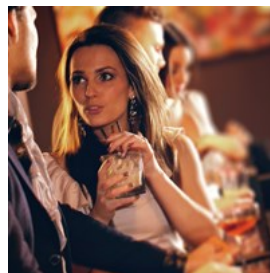

Tennis Bar is a lively, pet-friendly beach bar overlooking the Firule beach. Excellent music and lively atmosphere reign supreme even during the low season. The young crowd's energy creates an almost club-like mood at times. Come with friends of make new ones, dance the night away or lay back in a comfortable chaise lounge with your feet in the sand.

On those extra hot days, treat yourself to some ice cream at Tennis Bar.

Photo: Artur Kornakov/unsplash.com
Address: Put firula 18, Split
Opening hours: Daily 7am-2am
Phone: +385 99 277 1121

Treće Poluvrijeme (Kuka)

Situated just near the old football ground, Treće Poluvrijeme is a magnet for party-lovers, pumping rock or house music till the early hours. The dance-floor tends to get wild, seeing the numerous guests mingling and getting together in this popular hotspot.

Photo: Jacob Lund/Shutterstock.com
Address: Ulica Zrinsko-frankopanska 17, Split

Fjaka Cocktail Lounge Bar

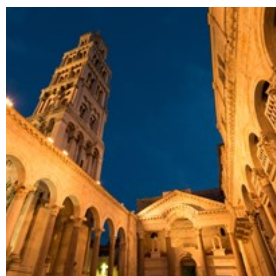

Experienced DJs play house music till the witching hours at Fjaka Cocktail Lounge Bar, that, combining a vibrant atmosphere and an inviting dance-floor. Enjoy some great coffee with the view on the Adriatic Sea, or try something stronger when the sun gets low. Fjaka is a slang word that describes an easy, slow going, even lazy mood — just what you need to during your stay in Split.

Photo: Arina P Habich/Shutterstock.com
Address: Šetalište Petra Preradovića 2, Split
Phone: +385 92 176 8968

Tower Pub Crawl

The best way to meet new people and mingle is certainly a guided pub crawl. In Split, with its diverse and huge offer of bars and clubs, choosing the best place to spend the night can be a tough task. Tower Pub Crawl will take you to some of the trendiest spot in town — all within 90 minutes, with unlimited drinks for the duration of the tour.

Photo: Natalia Bratslavsky

Address: 1 Poljana Kraljice Jelene, Split

Phone: +385 95 875 3161

Internet: towerpubcrawls.com

More Info: To join the tour, look for the green umbrella next to the tallest tower in the centre of the palace on Peristil street

The Daltonist Craft Bar

The Daltonist Craft Bar is a charming bar right beside the Old Town. The bar's existence is a testament to the fact that exceptional hospitality and a friendly relaxed atmosphere are don't have to be mutually exclusive. Run by a colourful international team from Argentina, the UK, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Mexico and Croatia, Daltonist offers international brunch options with Dalmatian flair during the day and a careful selection of small bites during the evening. If you like fun, great times, craft beers and creative cocktails — this bar is a must-visit!

Photo: Stanislav Ivanitskiy/unsplash.com

Address: Ulica Hrvojeva 10, Split

Opening hours: Sun-Thu 5pm-midnight, Fri & Sat 5pm-1am

Phone: +385 097 707 7531

Internet: www.thedaltonist.com/en

SHOPPING

The Visual Explorer/Shutterstock.com

Split has many shops, department stores and a range of small authentic art galleries, souvenir and antique shops in the alleys within the walls of the Palace. In the middle of summer these tiny streets are covered by the shady coolness of the stone walls, making a lengthy shopping trip a pleasure. The spooky basement of the Palace itself has turned into a colourful mixture of art and souvenir stalls.

Fish Market

Split's close proximity to the sea treats its citizens and guests to an abundance of freshly caught seafood. The Fish Market located in the old part of the town boasts a myriad of diverse fish stalls, providing restaurants and people throughout the town with the freshest products. A tip? After midday, if there is any fish left, you can buy it at half price.

Photo: ZoneFatal/Shutterstock.com

Address: Ulica Obrov 5, Split

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 6:30am-1:30pm, Sun 6:30am-noon

Internet: www.croatia-expert.com/split-fish-market

Green Market

Not only the freshest fruit, vegetables, olive oil and local brandies (though it appears being well-equipped with all of the above) — Green

Market's vast offer of stalls presents clothing items, accessories, knickknacks and anything else you can think of. Browse at the colourful products and get ready to use all your haggling skills.

Photo: Wlodarska/Shutterstock.com

Address: Ulica Stari Pazar 9, Split

Opening hours: Daily 6am-2pm

Internet: unforgettablecroatia.co.uk/food-wine/things-to-do-in-split-croatia-green-market

More Info: Located between the Diocletian palace and the main bus station for city buses

Aroma Dalmatia

The Beautiful Croatian coast is blessed with a welcoming sun that makes its soil fertile and rich in fruit and vegetables. Aroma Dalmatia provides its loyal customers with oil, wine, marmalade and dried fruit made of local ingredients. Along with the edible ones, soap and gift ideas are sold as well.

Photo: Christian Mueller/Shutterstock.com

Address: Ulica Dioklecijanovna 5, Split

Opening hours: Daily 9am-10pm

Phone: +385 95 995 3135

Studio Naranča

Studio Naranča is a place where emerging artists are valued and where the most talented earn their own space in a spot that focuses on modern design. The space is spread over 3 levels and features an art gallery, an art shop and "the Splitgraphic" International Graphic Art Biennial.

Photo: Kuznetcov_Konstantin/Shutterstock.com

Address: Ulica Majstora Jurja 5, Split

Phone: +385 95 1991 566

Internet: studionaranca.com

Email: pavo.studionaranca@gmail.com

City Center One

City Center is a vast shopping mall that features national and international clothing shops, restaurants, coffee shops and jewelleryes.

Located only 6 kilometres away from downtown Split, the mall is a hub of shops where you can find the perfect Croatian outfit or beach supplies.

Photo: LuckyImages/Shutterstock.com

Address: Ulica Vukovarska 207, Split

Opening hours: Daily 9am-9pm

Phone: +385 21 510 130

Internet: www.citycenterone.hr/split/en

Bonbonnière Kraš

With its almost one-hundred years of history, Kraš is an institution in town.

Whatever your sweet tooth may crave, Kraš colourful shop, features chocolate, candy, biscuits, wafers and even some savoury delicacies — you will find something special here.

Photo: Photology1971/Shutterstock.com

Address: Martinjski prolaz 1, Split

Opening hours: Mon-Sat 7am-8pm, Sun closed

Phone: +385 21 346 138

Podrum — Cellars of Diocletian's Palace

The ancient prison, a tangle of underground chambers concealed underneath the Diocletian Palace, is nowadays open only for special events.

The main alley that links the cells together, open daily, treats the tourists with an array of picturesque stalls, well-equipped with souvenirs and artworks of any sort.

Photo: Michael Gaylard/cc by 2.0/Flickr(image cropped)

Address: Podrum, Diocletian Palace, Split

More Info: You can access Podrum through the Bronze Gate (Mjedna Vrata)

Marmont Street

The most popular shopping area in Split for designer goods is the marble-lined street of Marmont. On Marmontova Ulica (as it is known in Croatian), you will find jewellery, clothes, shoes and other goods from artisanal and mass market brands. The street, stretching from the Old Palace, is reserved for pedestrians. Check out the over 100-year-old pharmacy Varoš, as well as art galleries and a popular fish market.

Photo: Tours in Croatia/CC BY 2.0/Flickr(image cropped)

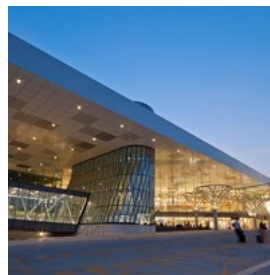

Address: Marmontova Ulica, Split

TOURIST INFORMATION

Natalia Bratslavsky/Shutterstock.com

Split Airport (SPU)

Split Airport is located 20 km northwest of Split and it takes approximately 35 minutes to get here from the city centre. The bus company that runs the service to/from the airport is called Pleso Prijevoz.

There is also a public bus stop nearby, where the line 37 run to (Split - Trogir; Trogir - Split) and 38 (Split Airport - Kastel Stari - Split; Split - Kastel Stari - Split Airport). You can buy a ticket at the Tisak Media kiosk at the airport or pay on board.

You can find some taxis also parked outside the airport, or use one of the ridesharing apps: Uber, Bolt and Cammeo.

Photo: Ballota/cc by-sa 4.0/Wikimedia(image cropped)

Address: Cesta Dr. Franje Tuđmana 1270, Kaštel Štafilić

Phone: +385 21 203 589

Internet: www.split-airport.hr

Email: informacije@split-airport.hr

Public Transport

The easiest way to get around in Split, especially in the Old Town, is by walking. If you plan to visit the outskirts of Split, use the city buses. They generally operate between 5 am and midnight. Tickets can be bought at the bus or from a newspaper kiosk.

Promet Split bus company operates 19 routes in the city itself, plus three night routes. Several suburban lines connect Split to Trogir (line 37, which passes Split Airport); to Klis fortress (line 34); to Solin; and to Omis (line 60).

Intercity busses usually depart from the local bus terminal called "Sukoišan autobusni kolodvor" next to the train station.

Photo: Mark Ahsmann/cc by-sa 3.0/Wikimedia(image cropped)
Address: Sukoišan autobusni kolodvor, Ulica kneza Domagoja 12, Split
Phone: +385 603 27 777
Internet: www.promet-split.hr
Email: info@promet-split.hr

Taxi

The Old Town is a pedestrian area therefore, if you are planning on hailing a taxi, it might be a bit of a challenge. You can find some taxis also parked around the city, or use one of the ridesharing apps: Uber, Bolt and Cammeo.

Photo: Andrea Piacquadio/pexels

Post

A few post-offices are located throughout town. Look for the yellow "Hrvastka Posta" signs. The most central post office is located on the Kralja Tomislava street. Mail boxes are yellow, with "Posta" or "HP" written on them.

Photo: Joanna Kosinska/unsplash
Address: Hrvatska pošta, Ulica kralja Tomislava 9, Split
Opening hours: Mon-Fri 8am-8pm, Sat 8am-1pm, Sun closed
Phone: +385 72 303 304

Pharmacy

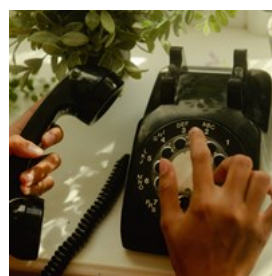

In Split, the numerous pharmacies, are often located 200 m from one another. Look for names like Bačvice, Biljni preparati, Dobri, Grad, Lučac and Marjan.

Pharmacy Lučac on Josipa Pupačića street is open 24/7.

Photo: Mika Baumeister/unsplash
Address: Ljekarna Lučac, Ulica Josipa Pupačića 4, Split
Opening hours: Always open
Phone: +385 21 533 188
Internet:
www.ljekarnasdz.hr/lokacije/sve-ljekarne/ljekarna/view/id/12

Telephone

Country code: +385 Area code: (0)21

Photo: Wesley Hilario/unsplash

Electricity

220w/50hz, plug is a standard European 2 point (types C and F).

Photo: Brina Blum/unsplash

Population

167,121 (2023)

Currency

On January 1st 2023, Euro replaced Croatian kuna as the country's official currency.

Opening hours

During the tourist season, most shops are open from 8 am till 8 pm on weekdays, and many shops stay open at the weekend. Banks and businesses generally work from 8 am until 4 pm on weekdays.

Internet

www.visitsplit.com/en

Newspapers

Slobodna Dalmacija (local cultural events) –

www.slobodnadalmacija.hr

Vecernji List (national newspaper) – www.vecernji.hr

Jutarnji List (national newspaper) – www.jutarnji.hr

Croatia Week (news in English) – www.croatiaweek.com

Emergency numbers

Police: 92

Medical emergency: 94

Rescue at Sea: 9155

Fire brigade: 93

Tourist information

Tourist Information Centre (TIC) Peristil

Tel: +385 21 345 606

touristinfo@visitsplit.com

Open Mon–Sat 8am–8pm, Sun 8am–2pm

