THE CITY

Dziewul / Shutterstock.com

Finding yourself in this six centuries old picturesque town, surrounded by two rivers, you might even think you're in Venice. The most scenic way to explore it is following the tree-lined Old Canal.

The town centre bristles with music and art. The Pomorska Philharmonic, Opera Nova, Theatre Polski and Centre for Art Exhibitions are only a few of the cultural institutions organising a plethora of concerts, performances, showcases and expositions throughout the year.

The outskirts are surrounded by lush green forests, which form the largest woodland area in Poland. Here you can also find protected and vast conservation areas which are now home to rare species of native flora and fauna.
