THE DESTINATION

Linda Raituma Skanste/Shutterstock.com

Idre is a sports venue that is busy for two seasons, summer and winter. It is home to Sweden's most stunning golf course and the most easily accessible mountains, Städdjan and Nipfjället. Idre Fjäll resort has an activity program for the whole family, offering adventures like shooting the rapids, canoeing, dog sledding, cross-country skiing, and much more. Many also come to Idre for fishing in the Storån river or one of the beautiful lakes of the area.

DO & SEE WINTER

Viktorishy/Shutterstock.com

Idre has one of the biggest ski resorts in Sweden, which makes it a great place to be if you love winter sports. With over 500 km of cross-country tracks, 2,400 km of snowmobile trails and 40 ski slopes, there is plenty to do here during the cold season.

Alpine skiing

Idre Fjäll is one of the largest ski resorts in Sweden and has 40 slopes of various difficulties for alpine skiing, all of which can be reached with the same lifts. Once on the top, you'll be able to ski in four directions.

In order to access the slopes and the lifts you'll need passes that can be obtained at the tourist office, at Idre Fjäll reception and at some local businesses.

Ski lessons are available for both children and adults.

Cross country skiing

The ski resort Idre Fjäll has 80 km of well prepared tracks for cross country skiing, 30 of which are illuminated. They all start from the ski stadium adjacent to Västbacken and offer beautiful landscapes. The trails leading to the lake Burusjön or the Städdien and the Nipfjället mountains are especially scenic.

To ski you'll need a trail pass that you can get at Idre's tourist office, at Idre Fjäll reception and at some local businesses. Private lessons are also available for beginners.

Snowmobiling

2,400 km of prepared snowmobile trails await you around Idre, providing a fun way to explore the area's stunning natural surroundings. In particular, the Älvdalen's area offers two great areas for snowmobiling: the Nordic Area (www.nordicarea.se) in the south and the Snöskoter Område Norra Dalarna (www.sond.se) in the north.

In order to drive a snowmobile here, you'll need a license that can be obtained at the tourist office, at gas stations and at some other local businesses. You'll also need to ask for map and information about the rules and regulations you need to respect.

If you don't have a snowmobile of your own, there is a wide range of rental companies in the area, with the possibility to go on a guided tour. One of them is Idre Adventure:

DO & SEE SUMMER

Johan Dalstrom/Shutterstock.com

Idre is an ideal destination for summer vacations, offering activities and sights that suit various interests. From leisurely walking in the mountains to fishing or canoeing at a lake, you'll have plenty of options for a fun and active holiday.

Biking

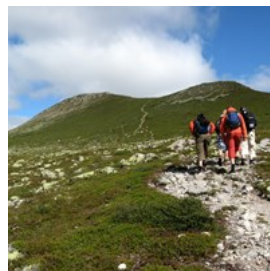

Several biking trails are easily accessible from Idre Fjäll resort. The trails are unidirectional and have different degrees of difficulty marked by colours: the green trails are the easiest and the red ones are the hardest, while the blue ones have medium difficulty. When the lift is in service you can easily go to the top of the mountain and enjoy the red downhill trails. Idre Fjäll also features a practice area with jumps, drops, a pump track, stone steps and balance training. To access the practice area, as well as some of the trails, you need a pass that you can obtain at Idre Fjäll reception, at the bike rental of the Mountain Sports shop and at some local businesses.

Hiking

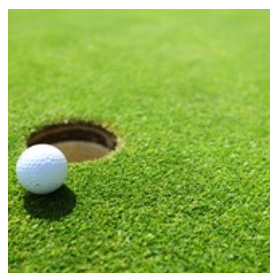

The area around Idre Fjäll offers endless hiking opportunities. The most scenic and exciting trails allow you to reach the summit of the mountains Nipfjället (starting from Nipfjället's car park) or Städian (starting from Städjan's car park). Once you arrive on top, you can enjoy the breath-taking views and perhaps a picnic. A shorter and easier hike starting from Nipfjället's car park is to the Lillnipen mountain. If you don't mind going a bit further, you can choose to hike in the Fulufjället National Park, the largest of its kind in southern Sweden. There you can see the country's highest waterfall, Njupeskar waterfall, and the world's oldest tree.

Don't forget to bring a map, some refreshments and good clothes for all weathers. If you need some company, you can join a guided hiking tour organised by the resort.

Rafting

Rafting is an exciting outdoors-activity where you, with an experienced guide, paddle a rubber-raft down a rapid white water. Though this takes place in fast moving waters, you need no previous experience. The rafting tours take place in the Trysil or the Glötta river, located in Norway and around 70 km from Idre Fjäll. The meeting point is the Rafting center, next to Timmerkojan restaurant. You can book the tour at the resort's reception.
