Golden domes and shimmering spires peek out from the wooded hills rising above the wide Dnipro River. Leafy-green Kyiv, with its traffic-packed boulevards, shopping malls, countless churches, brilliant music and lively nightlife, has embraced capitalism, yet held firmly to its heritage. The Caves Monastery is the spiritual heart of Ukraine, and nearby, a gigantic Brezhnev-era Motherland statue bearing sword and shield casts her all-encompassing eye over the city, the river, and its island beaches.

THE CITY

UBC Stock/Shutterstock.com

Kyiv's 1,500-year-old mix of fortunes rings out loudly from caves left by scholarly monks, the dazzling blue St Michael's, distinctive buildings by Rastrelli - the darling architect of St Petersburg -, the art collected by pre-revolutionary sugar magnates and the Babi Yar massacre memorial. The Stalin Empire architecture, Chernobyl Museum and the proud Independence Square are all part of Kyiv's unique charm.

The changing eras left their clear marks on the city. The stately mansions of the Lypki district are now government buildings, and the Caves Monastery, parks and Soviet statues define ancient Pechersk. The Upper City has landmark churches, and Saint Sophia's Cathedral, the greatest one of all, was modeled on the Hagia Sophia in Istanbul. Bohemian Andrew's Descent delights as it winds down into 19th-century Podil, while a glance across the river offers a starkly contrasting view over the concrete forest of Soviet apartment blocks.

Kyiv's music is unmissable, particularly the superb opera (and ballet!) at the Viennese-style Opera House. There is now an alternative music scene as well, which can be enjoyed in underground bars known to insiders only. Summertime is when street musicians create their art right at the city streets, filling the air with uplifting tunes and lovely melodies.

DO & SEE

Leonid Andronov/Shutterstock.com

Walking along Kyiv streets, one can witness many eras collide: Soviet architecture alongside orthodox cathedrals, and imperial palaces define the Ukrainian capital that has recently been shaken by quite a bit of political turmoil. Kyiv has now embraced modernity and has a lot to offer - its eclectic art and cultural scene can keep busy for days on end, so make sure to plan your route ahead.

Golden Gate of Kyiv

Restoration of the Golden Gate Monument was initiated on the occasion of Kyiv's 1500-year anniversary in 1982. This was met with some criticism, since this decision implied the structure's original ruins had to be removed to erect the new monument. The has now been rebuilt in a combination of brick and wood.

DINING

DenisProduction.com/Shutterstock.com

Bread is central to Ukrainian food culture, and so is borshch, a hearty and red coloured soup with beetroot. However, other local specialties are varenyky (large stuffed dumplings that can be both savoury and sweet), holubtsi (meat and rice rolled in cabbage leaves and topped with tomato sauce) and pelmeny (meat filled ravioli). Kyiv's cosmopolitan restaurants span multiple national borders, and the Japanese kitchen and fusion menus are the current big thing.

Le Cosmopolite

Le Cosmopolite, as part of the Pees Boy Club, is a authentic brasserie specializing in Belgian beer and cuisine, and in a laid-back and relaxed atmosphere. This venue is great for a friendly get together - especially, if you enjoy live jazz music.

SHOPPING

BABAROGA/Shutterstock.com

Looking at the variety of shops and department stores in the streets of Kyiv makes it hard to believe that just a couple of decades ago, shopping was practically non-existent. Today, you can find anything and everything in the fashion-conscious Ukrainian capital: while TsUM department store is known as "Kyiv's Harrods" and the posh Mandarin Plaza for its moneyed shop, Dream Town is more down to earth. Markets, bookstores and wine boutiques fill the bustling Ukrainian capital and they will keep you busy for days on end, if you just let them.

Bessarabsky Rynok

The boisterous Bessarabsky market with its fresh produce and incredible variety of fruit, vegetables and flowers is an essential stop for anyone looking for catching up the spirit of a lively marketplace. This authentic shopping experience should not be missed when in Kyiv.

Address: Bessarabs'ka Square, Kyiv

Opening hours: Daily 8am-10pm

TsUM

As home to many high-end shops, the TsUM department store is an attraction as much as it is a shopping mall. The historic building has a very Soviet air about it, and as nicknamed "Kyiv's Harrods", this giant has anything your heart desires.

Opening hours: Daily 10am-10pm

Phone: +380 44 507 14 19

Internet: www.newtsum.com

Roshen

Little-known outside the former USSR countries, this major confectionery manufacturer produces an incredible variety of quality sweets, and its outlet stores are scattered all over Kyiv and easy to find. Roshen chocolates make great gifts, too.

Address: Khreshchatyk Street 29/1, Kyiv

Opening hours: Daily 8am-10pm

Phone: +380 44 235 125 2

Internet: www.roshen.com

Globus

Shopping doesn't get more central than this, as the Globus mall is located directly in the heart of Independence Square. As Kyiv's favorite clothes-shopping destination, it hosts global brand-name stores such as Adidas, Tommy Hilfiger as well as many others.

Address: Maidan Nezalezhnosti 1, Kyiv

Opening hours: Daily 10am-10pm

Internet: www.globus.com.ua

Email: globus@lrp.com.ua

Dinternal

Slightly off the beaten track, this book shop is one of the few places in Kyiv where English-language literature can be found.

The store specializes in textbooks but some fiction is also on offer, so do have a look.

Address: Anri Barbyusa Street 16, Kyiv

Opening hours: Mon - Fri 10 am - 7 pm, Sat 10 am - 6 pm

Khreshchatyk Street

Kyiv's main artery, Khreshchatyk, is closed for traffic on weekends and holidays, and this makes shopping experience even more convenient. With its Globus Mall as well as numerous separate stores - both high-end and affordable - Khreshchatyk attracts hundreds of tourists and shoppers every day.

Address: Khreshchatyk Street, Kyiv

More Info: Most stores are open from 8am-8pm.

Mandarin Plaza

This multi-story shopping center features global high-end brand stores such as Chanel, Dolce & Gabbana, Armani and Ralph Lauren - for just to name a few - and also other shops that will enrich your shopping experience when being in Kyiv.

Boryspil International Airport

The largest passenger airport in the Ukraine, Boryspil, is located 35 kilometers away from the city centre. The easiest way to get here is by Sky

Bus, which connects the airport with Kyiv's main railway station via the Kharkivska metro station: it runs with 15 minute intervals during day time and 30-45 minutes apart at night, and tickets may be purchased in terminals B and D or straight at the bus; the journey lasts about 50 minutes.

There is a free airport shuttle bus circulating along the following route: Terminal D - Hotel - Terminal B (Bus terminal) - Hotel - Terminal D.

Several long-distance bus routes directly from the airport are offered by the companies "Gunsel", "Autolux" and "Ukrbus", and all normally run via the central bus station.

Taxis are available for hire as well, but make sure to agree on the price before departure.

Best Time to Visit

The best time to visit Kyiv is the summer season from May until September, as both the average temperature as well as rainfall are at their most visitor-friendly. However, this period is only second most crowded, as the charm of Christmas in Kyiv attracts many visitors - do travel around New Year's/Christmas time (January 7th is when the latter is celebrated) to experience Kyiv among festive locals.

Public Transport

Public transport runs from 5:45 am until midnight on trolleybuses, buses, the Metro and mini-buses (shuttle buses). The fast, clean and very deep Metro has three lines that are fairly easy to navigate, as metro schemes are available at all stations.

Post

The Central Post Office is a tourist attraction of its own, so make sure to visit it and possibly send a postcard or two to family and friends back home.

Drop your mail off directly at the post office or use one of the yellow or blue post boxes scattered around the city. However, make sure it says "outside Kyiv" if you are sending international mail. Delivery might take a while, so turn to a private delivery service in case you are in a rush.
