THE CITY

Rzeszów City Office

Rzeszów - the largest city of south-eastern Poland, the capital of Podkarpackie Province and the centre of the Rzeszow Metropolitan Area. The seat of local government and province authorities, governmental and judicial institutions. It constitutes the economic, academic, cultural and recreational centre of south-eastern Poland. It serves as an important centre for aerospace, IT, chemical, commercial, construction and service industries.

The capital of Podkarpackie Province has nearly 220 thousand inhabitants. In terms of number of students Rzeszow places first in the European Union (for every 1000 inhabitants there are 353 students). The average age of the inhabitants of the city is 39, so Rzeszow is often called the city of the young. Rzeszow is a place highly valued by its residents in terms of quality of life. They openly acknowledge that it is a clean, safe, convenient city, which provides life-time stability and satisfaction coming from personal and professional development.

Rzeszow is the seat of the Aviation Valley, the biggest aviation cluster in Poland, with more than 150 companies representing the industry. The largest plant is Pratt & Whitney Rzeszow (formerly WSK „PZL-Rzeszow”), specializing in the production of aircraft engines. The chemical industry - ICN Polfa, Sanofi-Aventis, IT sector - Asseco Poland SA as well as packaging - Marma Polskie Folie, are also developing in the city. In Rzeszow, companies like Zelmer and Nestle (formerly Alima-Gerber) also have their headquarters.

In Rzeszow there are two volleyball clubs with men’s team - Asseco Resovia Rzeszow and women’s team - Developers Rzeszow, which in 2017 won the bronze medal in the Poland’s championship competition. Asseco Resovia Rzeszow is a seven-time Polish champion, three-time Polish Cup winner and a Polish Super Cup winner. Volleyball has become a „national sport” in Rzeszow, matches taking place in the Regional sports and Entertainment Centre Jan Strzelczyk „Podpromie” are attended by nearly 4,000 supporters. Thanks to planned extension of the hall, it will soon be able to accommodate 7 thousand spectators. Another sport that is of great importance for the capital of Podkarpackie Province is speedway. Speedway races have taken place at the „Stal” City Stadium in Rzeszow since the 1950s. Speedway Stal Rzeszow has won the title of Polish Champion twice.

Rzeszow is a place of numerous festivals and cultural events. The World Festival of Polish Folk Ensembles organized here every three years since 1969 has been permanently incorporated into the cultural map of the city. During the festival, troupes from all over the world come to Rzeszow. Another significant festival is the Rzeszow Carpathia Festival , which has been organized since 2005. During the four days of the festival, young singers and music bands present their skills. The East of Culture festival - European Stadium of Culture, which takes place yearly by the end of June. As part of the festival, we could see and listen to such stars as Guano Apes, White Lies, The Fratellis, Coma, T.Love, Myslovitz and many others. The biggest audience is attracted by collective concertists - joint performances of Polish bands with guests from the east, from such countries as Ukraine, Belarus or Armenia.

CID Trail

The Central Industrial District trail is a special tourist proposition - instead of historical castles and palaces, concept gardens or the richness of Podkarpackie nature, we will see here factory buildings, remains of workers', craftsmen's and engineers' settlements as well as managers' villas.

The Green Velo Trail

The Green Velo Trail leads to Rzeszów - the capital of Podkarpackie Province. Its numerous monuments and the Galician architecture of the centre are worth mentioning. The market is particularly beautiful, under which the underground tourist route was laid out. Green Velo trail connects the city centre and the train station. It is an important transport node, a good place to start or finish the expedition on the south side of the route. We encourage you to take the tour "Podkarpackie metropolis neighbourhood", which is a great opportunity to get to know various landscape landmarks near Rzeszów. The route can be seen in its entirety at www.greenvelo.pl

Visit www.greenvelo.pl and check out the possibilities provided by the Eastern Bicycle Route. Web Portal is the largest bicycle tour guide over eastern part of Poland. Before you set out, create a plan of your stay with an intuitive tour planner in just a few simple steps.

RECREATIONAL AREAS BY THE RIVER WISŁOK

The green heart of Rzeszów is a recreation area located by the river Wisłok, where the inhabitants of Rzeszów are happy to spend time on warm days. By the river and near the lagoon there are paths for cyclists and rollers which are part of a network of 120 km long urban paths. Those who prefer to simply relax, can enjoy barbecues or play Mini Golf. There is also a large playground for children, where youngsters can put their energy to use. Every year there are bicycle and scooter rentals along Rzeszow boulevards and on weekends children can ride the cable car. Water sports enthusiasts can spend time on kayaks, water bikes or yachts. During the summer season, a sailing school operates on the Rzeszow Lagoon where yacht and motorboat courses are held. The extreme sports enthusiasts can try their hand at skatepark and dirtpark near the "Podpromie" hall, and in winter also in snowpark. For the brave ones - rope park. There are trails at three levels of difficulty in the park and a path for children.

There are cafes, pubs, bars and a dance club by Wisłok and the lagoon. Social life by the Rzeszow's river in the spring/summer time goes on until late in the evening. The Educational Fruit Orchard was established in Lisia Góra Nature Reserve.

DO & SEE

BestPhotoStudio / Shutterstock.com

The close proximity to the Carpathian mountain range grants a rare beauty to the area, and there are many outdoor activities to explore. But you cannot neglect the charming Old Town and the vibrancy of this city. Admire historical landmarks, like the Lubomirski Palace, the two synagogues and the stunning market square, or visit some of the city's fine museums.

The Market Square

The central square of the Old Town is the Market Square with the Town Hall and a well from the 17th century. The present Market is slightly different from the original 15th-century appearance - only the three frontages are built-up with tenement houses that have undergone reconstruction over the centuries.

There are hotels, restaurants, clubs, pubs, museums and various institutions. One of the more interesting is the tenement house No. 19. The fragments of brick-stone walls and Gothic arches and lintels discovered in the basement that can be seen in the Underground Tourist Route, date back to the beginning of the 15th and 16th centuries. On summer evenings, near the Town Hall you can watch the performances of famous singers, music and vocal groups and dance troupes.

District Museum in Rzeszów

The Regional Museum in Rzeszów is located in a 17th-century building, which alongside the church and the school was once an integral part of the Piarist monastery complex. Rich museum collections are exhibited in the sections: Archeology, Art, History and in the Library.

There is also a workshop specializing in the Preservation of Works of Art. The unique interiors and very good acoustics of the refectory are used for concerts, poetry evenings, meetings, theatre monodramas. On the grounds of a spacious and atmospheric pleasure garden numerous outdoor events take place, e.g. "Museum Night".

Museum of University of Rzeszów

The Museum of the University of Rzeszow, established in 2002, continues the tradition of the Museum of Education. It documents the activities of the University of Rzeszow, established in 2001 through merger of previously existing universities: the Higher School of Education in Rzeszow, subsidiary of Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Rzeszow and subsidiary of the University of Agriculture in Rzeszow.

Its collections are dominated by historic items: memorabilia documenting the history of the university, collections, awards, distinctions and diplomas related to professors and university staff. The facility organizes temporary exhibitions, meetings, conferences and conducts educational activities.

The museum has produced the exhibition "Karol Wojtyła on a tourist trail" exhibited in the courtyard of the curia of Cracow. Another exhibition "Polish Vizier Fefi" was exhibited at the Institute of the Polish Academy of Sciences in Vienna as well as at the international conference "Art and archaeology of the Old Kingdom" at the University of Warsaw.

Szajna Gallery

On 13 March 1997, at the 75th anniversary of his birth and the 50th anniversary of creative work of the world-famous theatre producer and an artist - Professor Jozef Szajna, the adapted attic of the theatre saw the opening of the gallery of the artist's works.

It is the only exhibition of Professor Jozef Szajna's works in Poland and in the world, one of the most important artists of the 20th century. All the works that can be seen in the Gallery are gifts from Professor to Rzeszow - the city where he was born.

Jozef Szajna's body of work is shown in terms of aesthetic transformations, hence we can admire here paintings and objects, puppets, drawings and collages created during various periods of the artist's life. There are 54 works in the gallery: monumental paintings, drawings, collages, spatial compositions and stage design items from Szajna's most outstanding theatrical performances.

The exhibition is a retrospective presentation of the artist's work. Next to the works shown at many prestigious exhibitions in Poland and abroad, there are new exhibitions from the last period of his work. Since its inception, the Gallery has been a meeting place for artists representing various fields: artists, writers, musicians, theatre people.

The Fara Church

ST.STANISLAUS AND ST.
WOJCIECH FARA

CHURCH The church probably existed before 1363, but it was destroyed during the great fire. Only the Gothic presbytery, dating back to the beginning of the 15th century, remained. In the first half of the 17th century a belfry was erected, and in 1754 the main aisle was rebuilt, lateral aisles were added and it was given a baroque décor. In the chancel there are gravestones of the Rzeszów's families. In the years 1962-1965 a thorough restoration of the church took place.

3 Maja Street

The oldest street in Rzeszów's old town, at the same time the most representative. There is the Fara Church, the Piarist convent, the statue of Tadeusz Nalepa, many dining options, “Zorza” cinema - the oldest cinema in the city. The street before the partitions was called Pijarska. On the map from 1826 it is listed as Expiaristengasse, or popijarska, but two years later it was already known as Herrengasse - Pańska street. In the interwar period, despite having the official name of “3 Maja” it was called “Pańska” and also “Paniega”.

After the renovation in 2017, the street gained a pre-war look. As a result of the archaeological work carried out at the house No. 14, a window of time has been created showing how the street surface has changed over the centuries.

The Piarist Monastery

The Piarist Convention included a church, a monastery and a school. The postpiarist complex features the church of St. Cross in the centre, built between 1644-1649 according to the design of Tylman of Gameren. It is a one-nave temple with two towers in the facade and a chapel on the north side. Late baroque decor with stucco decorations by Jan Ch. Falconi from the end of the 17th century. In the chancel, at the entrance to the sacristy, there is a mausoleum of the Lubomirskis family.

In the monastery building there is now the Regional Museum, with rich collections in the fields of art, history, ethnography and archaeology, exhibited in the form of permanent exhibitions (e.g. Galeria Dąbskich) or temporary exhibitions. In the old refectory you can see frescoes from the end of the 17th century.

The Piarists founded the Collegium Ressoviense next to the monastery in 1658. Fr. Stanislaw Konarski taught here - currently the patron of Secondary School No. 1. The school is one of the oldest in Poland. Many of its students were glorified on the pages of Polish history and in culture. Ignacy Łukasiewicz, Jozef S. Pelczar, Wladyslaw Sikorski, Władysław Szafer or Julian Przyboś.

The Lubomirski Summer Palace

The Lubomirski Summer Palace was built by the efforts of Hieronim A. Lubomirski, and designed by Tylman of Gameren. Located in close proximity to the Lubomirski Castle, it has undergone many redevelopments over the centuries. It has not retained its original architecture, nor the baroque gardens that used to be around it. The District Medical Chamber is located here nowadays.

The Lubomirski Castle

The construction of the castle was started at the end of the 16th century by the contemporary owner of Rzeszow - Nicholas Spytek Ligęza.

In the second half of the 17th century the Lubomirskis expanded the castle and encamped it with a stone wall with bastions.

It owes its current appearance to the last redevelopment performed at the turn of the 19th and 20th century. At present, the castle houses the District Court. Transformation of the castle into a cultural institution is being planned at the moment.

Multimedia Fountain

At the foot of the Castle is there is the Rzeszow Multimedia Fountain. The main attraction of the fountain complex are water jets dancing to the music and foggy water screen, where audience can watch film, laser and 3D presentations.

Next to the fountain there is an amphitheatre, where you can watch spectacles, which are a combination of music, light and moving water.

Round Footbridge

Round footbridge is the only object of this type in Europe. In addition to its innovative shape, it is distinguished by the selection of finishing materials: specially bent and hardened glass, elevator shafts, exotic wood, resistant to changing weather conditions alongside illumination of the whole object.

This unique structure was created over the intersection of al. Piłsudskiego and Grunwaldzka St.- one of the most frequented places of the main communication artery in Rzeszow. Thanks to its location, the footbridge provides an excellent viewpoint.

Bernardine Monastery Complex

Bernardine monastery with The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church was established in the first half of the 17th century. Originally it was the site of a wooden church, built in 1536. In the chancel there are gravestones of the Ligęza family.

At the Shrine of Our Lady of Rzeszow - Patroness of Rzeszow - there is a late Gothic figurine of Our Lady with the Child from 1513. In 2008 the church received the title of Minor Basilica.

At the foot of the Monastery there are Bernardine Gardens arranged in Italian style. They are open every day 7:00-21:00.

MOOSE

The “Moose” bomber, or more precisely its technical drawing, adorns the wall of the tenement house at Grunwaldzka St. (from Sobieskiego St.).

The

bomber used to be produced by plants operating within the Central Industrial District (page 14). The components of the engines for this aircraft were made at the PZL Rzeszow Aircraft Engine Factory No. 2 (now Pratt & Whitney).

The mural’s creators were artists from the Fresh Vision Studio agency.

EVENTS

Rzeszów City Office

Due to its geographical position, Polish cuisine has absorbed the influences of the cultures and countries surrounding it and transformed them into distinctive national flavours. The cold winter climate has also played its part, creating a menu that is hearty and filling. The typical Polish diet therefore consists of thick soups such as Zurek and Bigos, a sauerkraut-based stew. A combination of meat is a particular favourite and is usually accompanied by the other staples of Polish cuisine like root vegetables, bread or dumplings.

The European Stadium of Culture

The European Stadium of Culture is currently the most important cultural event of Rzeszow. The European Stadium of Culture - the East of Culture has taken place every June since 2011. It was launched in connection with the Euro 2012 Football Championship. Since 2013, it has been implemented using a new formula under the project EAST OF CULTURE, with the involvement of three cities - Rzeszow, Lublin, Bialystok.

EAST OF CULTURE is the largest undertaking of its kind in Poland consolidating the activities of three cities into one coherent project, using the best traditions of the cultures of the east and the west.

There are about 40 different events, including concerts, exhibitions, shows, film presentations, workshops, and meetings.

At the main concert over the last three years the city of Rzeszow was visited by the following bands: White Lies, Kayah, Jamal, The Fratellis, Kasia Kowalska, Patrycja Markowska, Within Temptation, Skubas and Jono McCleery from Great Britain, Sarsa and Green Room & Dato Lomidze from Georgia. Piotr Rogucki, Kortez, Guano Apes, guitarist Dean Brown, Hey, Voo Voo, Julia Marcell and many more.

Paniaga Festival

Paniaga Festival is one of the favourite cultural events in Rzeszow, taking place during the May 3rd Constitution Day. 3 Maja Street, formerly Pańska Street, is one of the most important and oldest streets of Rzeszow, once used to be called the Paniaga. Uninterruptedly since the 14th century, it has been the centre of the city and the place of cultural events. Starting from 2003, May 3 celebrates not only the adoption of the Constitution, but also the Paniaga Festival, the favourite pedestrian promenade in Rzeszow. During the event 3 Maja street is full of life, offering numerous attractions such as outdoor exhibitions, dance shows, movies, food tastings, and concerts on several stages set in the city centre.

The traditional feature of the Paniaga Festival is a handicraft and regional products fair, as well as an opera concert, which is presented every year on the Rzeszow Market Square.

Urban Space Festival

The City Space Festival is an opportunity to talk about the social and spatial development of contemporary Rzeszów. Every year the event is organized in another, surprising place, which is specially adapted for the festival.

Every year different space and place are chosen to locate the festival, sometimes it is Industrial sites, atypical or otherwise - known and popular, but for the duration of the Festival those places change their face and are used differently than on a daily basis.

This idea serves to revitalize and tame urban space, and to make citizens to look at the city from a different perspective than usual. The program includes lectures, workshops, presentations, installations, films, concerts and other cultural.

The Festival is an event that integrates the local community, giving a real opportunity to discuss the condition of the city and its impact on its development.

Rzeszów Breakout Days

International music festival, was created to commemorate father of Polish blues - Tadeusz Nalepa. The originator of the event is Piotr Nalepa.

The event has already become a permanent part of the calendar of cultural events in the region as well as in whole country, bringing together a multitude of rock and blues enthusiasts. Admission to all festival concerts is free.

"Rzeszów Breakout Days Festival" allows for creative continuation of the best traditions of Polish and world cultural life, but above all it is a place of confrontation of modern trends in music culture and the creation of new values and means of artistic expression.

The aim of the event is to promote and support artistic creativity, to present heritage of polish and world music culture, and to develop high cultural competences.

„REGGAE ON THE WISŁOK”

The first edition of the event called „Reggae on the Wisłok - 5 years of the Rzeszow House of Culture” took place on June 14, 2015 in the Park of Culture and Recreation at Rzeszow Boulevards. The stars of the memorable evening were two well-known singers - the legendary Ghetto Priest from Great Britain and the popular Mesajah from Poland. Concerts were accompanied by thematic music and handicraft workshops related to reggae culture, as well as entertainment and games for children.

The audience of thousands and the positive reception of the first edition of the event made „Reggae on the Wisłok” quickly become one of the most interesting cultural proposals aimed at Rzeszow residents and reggae fans from all over Poland. During the next events, participants from all over the country had the opportunity to see and hear live leading representatives of the Polish and international reggae, dub and dancehall scenes, such as: Jamal, Vavamuffin, Dark Angel, Radikal Guru, Dreadsquad, Taboo and Junior Stress. The previous editions were also enhanced by interesting accompanying initiatives, such as all-night dance Afterparties, which took place twice in the Vinyl music club, and Night-skating Rzeszow in reggae climates, i.e. a night-time roller- skating ride through the streets of the city.

WORLD FESTIVAL OF POLISH FOLKLORE GROUPS

Every three years, traditionally in July, the World Festival of Polish Folklore Groups takes place in Rzeszow, integrating Polish diaspora from different continents. So far, over 250 different groups have taken part in the festivals, and some of them have participated many times. The most numerous groups were from the USA, Canada, France and Great Britain. There were also groups from Germany, Sweden, Denmark, Switzerland and Romania, as well as from far away Australia, Brazil, Argentina and Kazakhstan. Since the beginning of the nineties, Polonia teams from Ukraine, Lithuania and Belarus have been increasingly represented.

Each time, the Festival begins with a beautiful, colourful procession of Polonia groups dancing and singing through the streets of the city. During the Festival, the participants present their artistry and artistic achievements on the Rzeszow stages and in many places in our region. The tradition of the Festival includes the Song and Dance Concert of Countries of Residence, during which the guests bring the folklore of their new homelands closer to the audience.

The whole event is crowned with an impressive gala concert in which all the Festival groups participate. During the Festival, numerous accompanying events are organized: artistic workshops with the participation of the best Polish choreographers, exhibitions popularizing Polish history, culture and art, scientific conferences on topics related to Polish communities, fairs, contests in knowledge about Poland, and performances of regional song and dance groups.

Stary Browar Rzeszowski

Stary Browar Rzeszowski A very good restaurant, Polish style. The portions are HUGE, especially the cauldron soup with beef and the pig cotlet. There is also a skewer with meat and vegetables, supposedly for two, but my friend and his wife were incapable of finishing it.

The beer is locally brewed and served in portions of 0.4 litre or 1.0 litre. You can also order a set of five cups of different types.

Highly recommended. Enjoy
