

Tel Aviv

Photo: StockStudio/Shutterstock.com

JekLi / Shutterstock.com

Tel Aviv, alongside Jerusalem, is one of the two most popular tourist destinations in Israel, as well as the economic and cultural centre of the country. The seaside location makes Tel Aviv an appealing summertime destination, and its reputation for lively nightlife and a burgeoning cultural scene explains it being dubbed the 'city that never stops'.

Dance60 / Shutterstock.com

Seqoya / Shutterstock.com

Featured

Kikar Kedumim

The heart of Old Jaffa, Kikar Kedumim (Hebrew for 'Square of ancient times')...

Al-Bahr Mosque

Al-Bahr Mosque is the oldest mosque in Old Jaffa, built in 1675. People arri...

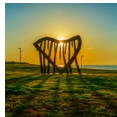

Cymbalista Synagogue

Cymbalista Synagogue and Jewish Heritage Center is a local cultural institut...

Givatayim Observatory

Right outside of Tel Aviv is a place to take a closer look at the sky and to...

Charles Clore Park

The Charles Clore Park is located right next to the Mediterranean Sea. Take ...

Top 5

Old Jaffa

Old Jaffa is the oldest part of Tel Aviv with romantic streets, old churches...

Tayelet — The Promenade

The promenade of Tel Aviv is a picturesque waterside stretch. The 5 km long ...

Clock Tower

The history of the Jaffa Clock Tower goes back to the Ottoman period, when s...

Azrieli Towers

The Azrieli Towers were built between 1996 and 1999, which makes them a rela...

Tel Aviv Museum of Art

One of the most popular museums in Tel Aviv, the Museum of Art hosts an ever...

THE CITY

Protasov AN / Shutterstock.com

In dramatic contrast to the nation's capital, Jerusalem, Tel Aviv isn't a city steeped in its historic past. Instead, it is a living, breathing urban centre, one that boasts burgeoning cultural, culinary, and nightlife scenes.

Made up of several starkly different neighbourhoods, Tel Aviv has something to offer for the history-lover and the hip young traveller curious about modern Israeli culture.

One of the city's oldest areas — the Ottoman-era Jaffa — is now as old as three millennia, and entices visitors with ancient buildings, biblical artefacts, and a still operational, charming fishing port.

Another neighbourhood to be written into any visitor's route is the Neve Tzedek. Stroll around the charming streets of one of Tel Aviv's oldest parts (the first Jewish neighbourhood to appear outside the city walls), and sit down for a slow meal at one of the many restaurants and cafes.

The famous Bauhaus buildings, Tel Aviv's so-called 'White City', do not occupy an area of their own, but are scattered throughout the entire town. Tel Aviv also enjoys a breezy coastal setting on the Mediterranean, with kilometres of beaches.

DO & SEE

Boris Stroujko / Shutterstock.com

While many come to Tel Aviv for the city's gorgeous beaches and unstoppable nightlife, there is much more to see and do. Explore a combination of historical sights and attractions with cutting-edge art galleries and boutiques, the city's look ranging from modernist Bauhaus buildings and millennial architecture in Jaffa.

Old Jaffa

Old Jaffa is the oldest part of Tel Aviv with romantic streets, old churches, and old stone buildings. The rich history behind this part of town is what gives it an irresistible charm and makes visitors fall in love with its atmosphere. Walk around or spend a few hours at the hip wine bars, creative Mediterranean dining and seafood restaurants near Jaffa Port.

Photo: JekLi/Shutterstock.com

Address: Old Jaffa, Tel Aviv

More Info: Also known as the Ancient Yafo offers avant-garde design stores, fashion boutiques and handicraft shops. Check out the weekly farmers' market in a restored railway station, HaTachana. Stop for a meal in trendy European restaurants, have a cold drink at any of the stylish bistros, and stay until late exploring jazz bars and cocktail lounges.

Photo: Fotokon/Shutterstock.com

Address: Shalom Shabazi Street, South-West Tel Aviv

Hayarkon Park

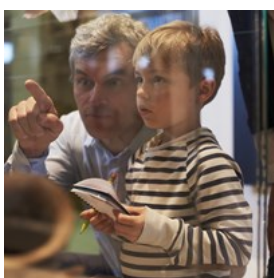

The Hayarkon Park is the perfect place to get away from the busy streets of the city. It's located just right outside downtown Tel Aviv and is very popular with residents for its sports facilities, scenic areas and a pond. World-renowned musicians (from The Rolling Stones to Justin Bieber) have performed here at different points in time.

Photo: Elad Saporta/cc by 2.5/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)

Address: Yarkon Park, Tel Aviv

Eretz Israel Museum

If you are in Tel Aviv and would like to know more about the country's history and culture, Eretz Israel Museum is the place for you. The museum not only has exhibits but also a planetarium, lecture rooms and workshops for its visitors.

Photo: Monkey Business Images/Shutterstock.com

Address: Chaim Levanon Street 2, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Phone: +972 36 415 244

Internet: www.erezmuseum.org.il

Meir Park

If you are looking to escape from the bustling streets of the city, Meir Park can be a great choice for you. Sit down and have a cup of coffee in the cafe or stop by at the park's playground if you're visiting with kids. It's a wonderful, central green spot for everyone to enjoy nature for a little while.

The park is named after the first mayor of Tel Aviv, Meir Dizengoff and is home to the Tel Aviv Municipal LGBT Community Center.

Photo: Sagie/cc by-sa 2.0/Flickr(image cropped)

Address: Gan Meir, Tchernikhovski Street 24, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Charles Clore Park

The Charles Clore Park is located right next to the Mediterranean Sea. Take your friends or family to this park and have a nice afternoon while barbecuing, playing ball games, riding a bicycle along the scenic promenade or just relaxing out in the sun.

The park was built from the remains of Al-Manshiyya, a historic Palestinian neighbourhood that was expelled and later demolished in the 1960s to establish the new central business district (CBD).

Photo: eFesenko/Shutterstock.com

Address: Charles Clore Park, Tel Aviv

Al-Bahr Mosque

Al-Bahr Mosque is the oldest mosque in Old Jaffa, built in 1675.

People arriving by boat used to enter the city via Jaffa's old port. To take in the view of the city's historic centre, use the mosque as your vantage point and enjoy the panorama. Al-Bar Mosque is located right on the shore of the Mediterranean Sea.

Photo: Ratikova/Shutterstock.com
Address: Al-Bahr Mosque, Tel Aviv

Suzanne Dellal Center

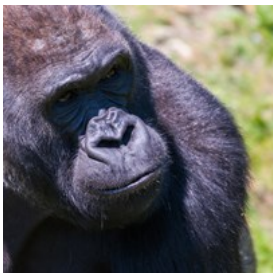

Suzanne Dellal Center is a dance and theatre space with an inviting open-air garden, a venue popular with both locals and visitors. The Center boasts an ever-changing offer of professionally staged performances, so do check the website for schedules when you're in town.

Photo: Talmoryair/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)
Address: Yehieli Street 5, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Phone: +972 3 510 5656
Internet: www.suzannedellal.org.il
Email: info@sdc.org.il

Ramat Gan Safari Park

Just outside the city you can bump into the largest number of animals in a safari park in the Middle East. Gorillas, hippos, lions and elephants are just some of the 1600 species of animals waiting for you. Don't miss the chance to visit this place if you are in town.

Photo: Dave Carroll/Shutterstock.com

Address: Bernstein Street, Ramat Gan, Tel Aviv

Phone: +972 3 632 0222

Internet: www.languages.safari.co.il

Email: moked@safari.co.il

Kikar Kedumim

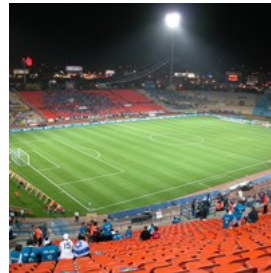

The heart of Old Jaffa, Kikar Kedumim (Hebrew for 'Square of ancient times') is an ancient central square and an essential stop for anyone touring the city. With the city port on one side and Old Jaffa streets on the other, Kikar Kedumim is the perfect departure point for a Tel Aviv city tour. Do not miss its centrepiece fountain, as well as souvenir shops and eateries in the area.

Photo: volkova natalia/Shutterstock.com
Address: Kikar Kedumim, Tel Aviv

Ramat Gan Stadium

The former national stadium of Israel (it used to hold the title up until 2014) is the Ramat Gan Stadium. It is mostly used to host football games, but is also a site for large-scale concerts and athletic competitions other than football.

Photo: NYC2TLV/cc by-sa 3.0/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)

Address: Aba Hilell Street, Ramat Gan Stadium, Tel Aviv

Internet: www.football.org.il/en

Cymbalista Synagogue

Cymbalista Synagogue and Jewish Heritage Center is a local cultural institution that aims to promote mutual understanding between different groups of the local population — religious or otherwise — via hosting events and lectures. The building itself, with its two bulky towers, is a sight to behold.

Photo: אוריאל לוי/צילום/CC BY-SA 3.0/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)

Address: Cymbalista Synagogue, Tel Aviv

Phone: +972 3 640 8020

More Info: Located in the Tel Aviv University

Givatayim Observatory

Right outside of Tel Aviv is a place to take a closer look at the sky and to all of its stars. Givatayim Observatory offers educational lectures and courses for children and adults. The friendly staff will help you get answers to all of your questions about the cosmos and skies.

Photo: Arielinson/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)

Address: Givatayim Observatory, Tel Aviv

Phone: +972 03 573 1152

Internet: www.astronomy.org.il

DINING

Stepanek Photography/Shutterstock.com

With a seemingly never-ending selection of places to eat, ranging from fine dining to street food, Tel Aviv is one of the region's best culinary cities. Daring chefs push the envelope when it comes to fusing tradition with innovation in the city's top restaurants, while street stalls take quick, cheap and delicious to whole new levels.

Jasia Asian Restaurant & Sushi Bar

Jasia is an establishment that offers delicious Asian cuisine in a relaxing environment. Excellent quality pan-Asian specialties and the most delicious sushi rolls are all on the menu.

Photo: funkyfrogstock/Shutterstock.com

Address: Louis Pasteur Street 7, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Internet: www.jasiarest.co.il

Hatraklin Meat & Wine Bistro

Hatraklin is a place for meat-lovers. If you are looking for the most outstanding steak in town served by friendly staff in an amazing atmosphere, this is a place worth trying out. The wine is excellent as well, and the selection makes for delicious pairing.

Photo: Yulia Grigoryeva/Shutterstock.com
Address: Heichal Hatalmud Street 4, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Phone: +972 3 566 0013
Internet: www.hatraklin.co.il
Email: yossibo1@gmail.com

Dalida

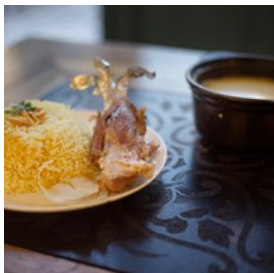

Sitting outside, enjoying a tasty meal while sipping on your favourite cocktail is sometimes all you wish for. Dalida is a reputable, centrally located

Arab-European fusion restaurant that makes it happen. Stop by if you are longing for some refreshment and great music. Don't miss out on an umami-rich bone marrow or seafood meal.

Photo: stockcreations/Shutterstock.com
Address: Zevulun Street 7, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Phone: +972 3 536 9627
Internet: www.dalidatlv.co.il
Email: dalidatlv@gmail.com

Haj Kahil

Haj Kahil offers a large variety of delicious meals for both meat eaters and vegetarians. The establishment specialises in Palestinian and broader Middle Eastern cuisine, so order a selection of small plates to try a variety of flavours at once.

Photo: Waleed_Hammoudeh/Shutterstock.com
Address: David Razi'el Street 18, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Phone: +972 3 518 8866
More Info: Haj Kahil does not serve alcohol

Night Kitchen

Night Kitchen is one of the hippest restaurants around — its kitchen is known for the innovative approach to dish preparation and presentation, and offerings range from ceviche to tacos to a whole multitude of Mediterranean specialties. The location is convenient, too.

Photo: Marcelo_Krelling/Shutterstock.com
Address: Lilienblum Street 43, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Opening hours: Mon-Sat: servings at 6pm & 7pm
Phone: +972 3 566 0481
Internet: www.ontopo.co.il/en/nightkitchen
Email: nightkghost@gmail.com

Shakshukia

This well-visited restaurant is the right place to try out one of the local specialties — the namesake shakshuka, a tomato and egg-based dish with special seasoning. Try the classic variety, or customize your shakshuka with meats and vegetables of personal choice.

Photo: alely/Shutterstock.com
Address: Ben Yehuda Street 94, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Opening hours: Sun-Thu noon-4pm / 6pm-10:30pm; Fri 11am-4pm; Sat closed
Phone: +972 3 522 3433

Shila — Sharon Cohen's Kitchen & Bar

An exciting and sophisticated open kitchen and unusual flavour combinations are the two things diners at Shila can expect. The innovative fine dining menu is supported by a robust wine list. Convenient location in the city centre completes the package.

Photo: Kzenon/Shutterstock.com

Address: Ben Yehuda Street 182, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Opening hours: Daily 12:30pm-late

Phone: +972 03 522 1224

Internet: www.shila-rest.co.il

Email: shilabar@gmail.com

La Shuk

La Shuk serves authentic Middle Eastern and Mediterranean food right in the heart of Tel Aviv.

The restaurant is known as the go-to place for fish and seafood lovers, and enjoys a superb reputation for its exceptionally attentive service. Do not skip on the bread and dips. This bustling eatery features an open kitchen and outdoor seating.

Photo: IrinaChevzhik/Shutterstock.com

Address: Dizengoff Street 92, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Opening hours: Daily noon-midnight

Phone: +972 3 603 3117

Internet: www.la-shuk.co.il

La Repubblica

La Repubblica di Ronimotti is located right in the heart of Lev Ha'ir district. Stop by for breakfast, lunch or dinner at La Repubblica.

Separate menus are available for each meal of the day. Cuisine served is refined Italian, featuring familiar classics and refreshing new finds.

Photo: Denizo71/Shutterstock.com

Address: Maze Street 3, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Opening hours: Mon-Thu noon-4pm / 6pm-10pm; Fri

noon-4pm / 5:30pm-10pm; Sat noon-4pm / 5pm-10pm

Phone: +972 3 647 0247

Internet: www.larepubblica.co.il

Email: larepubblica1@gmail.com

"Black Out" dinner at the Nalaga'at Theatre

Nalaga'at is a non-profit arts and cultural centre that hosts the first theatrical company in the world with deaf-blind performers. The "Black

Out" experience puts guests in a completely dark room, so that all the senses other than sight are heightened during their meal. A team of blind waiters will cater to their needs, serving kosher food and wine.

Photo: Anton Chernov/Shutterstock.com

Opening hours: Sun, Tue & Thu: Service 1 at 6:30pm, Service 2 at 9pm

Phone: +972 36330808

Internet: www.nalagaat.org.il/en

Email: theater1@nalagaat.org.il

CAFES

Kvitka Fabian / Shutterstock.com

Cafes play an important role in the life of the locals of Tel Aviv. These are the places where they go not only to catch up with friends or family but to do business, too. Talented baristas serve up expertly-prepared coffee, and decadent desserts are abundant. Be sure to try some local baked goods and bread.

Cafe Xoho

Delicious bagels with a cup of coffee on the side is what Cafe Xoho offers visitors. Located just a few minutes away from the beach, this excellent vegan- and vegetarian-friendly cafe and bakery welcomes for breakfast, lunch, and a coffee in-between.

Photo: Ruslan Shramko/Shutterstock.com

Address: Ben Yehuda Street 73, Tel-Aviv-Yafo

Opening hours: Sun-Fri 8am-4pm, Sat closed

Phone: +972 3 561 6745

Internet: www.cafexoho.com

Email: cafe.xoho@gmail.com

Cafe Puaa

Puaa is a popular place among those looking to take a little break from the busy flea market of Jaffa. The quaint cafe offers a pleasant selection of nourishing local and international specialties, and is especially well-known as one of the locals' breakfast spots of choice.

Photo: Daxiao Productions/Shutterstock.com

Address: Rabbi Yohanan Street 8, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Phone: +972 3 682 3821

Internet: www.puaa.co.il

Abu Hasan/Ali Karavan

You'll never look the same way at hummus again after a brief stop at Abu Hasan. This eatery serves hummus and hummus only, with a side of bread and fresh chopped onion. Do not despair if securing a spot inside proves too complicated — the place is incredibly popular, and patrons often spill out onto the street.

Photo: etorres/Shutterstock.com

Address: Ha-Dolfin Street 1, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Phone: +972 3 682 0387

Ha'pizza

Nearly universally heralded as the best possible pizza place in Tel Aviv, Ha'pizza may venture off traditional Italian classics with its recipes, but all into a no less delicious direction. The open kitchen allows a fascinating insight into the intricate cooking process.

Photo: SirChopin/Shutterstock.com

Address: Bugrashov Street 51, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Phone: +972 3 528 1077

Internet: www.hapizza.rest.co.il

Little Prince Bookshop

The walls of Little Prince are lined from top to bottom with new and used books, mostly in Hebrew and English. You are invited to spend hours here, sipping on hot or iced coffee, reading books, working on your laptop or playing backgammon (called "sheshbesh" here). The shaded patio is particularly nice.

Photo: Haley Black/pexels.com

Address: King George Street 19, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Opening hours: Sun-Thu 10am-midnight, Fri 10am-5pm, Sat 8pm-midnight

Phone: +972 3 525 3632

Cafelix

The hip cafe gives off a relaxed vibe of a neighbourhood coffee place, with an unassuming yet cool interior and a compact outdoor terrace that seats a select few. All coffee beans are carefully selected and roasted in a variety of techniques. A few snacks and pastries available to order.

Photo: Alexandra Lande/Shutterstock.com

Address: Shlomo HaMelekh Street 12, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Opening hours: Sun-Thu 7am-7pm, Fri 7am-3:30pm, Sat closed

Phone: +972 3 525 0388

Internet: www.cafelix.co.il

More Info: Cafelix has three locations in Tel Aviv

Cafe Birenbaum

Cafe Birenbaum provides real authentic food in an enchanting atmosphere.

This place welcomes you with open arms and offers excellent coffee. Healthy meals and delicious dessert is waiting for you if you decide to stop by!

Photo: Anastasia Sunnybeam/Shutterstock.com

Address: Nahalat Binyamin Street 31, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Opening hours: Sun-Wed & Fri 8am-3pm, Thu 8am-3pm / 6pm-midnight, Sat closed

Phone: +972 356 000 66

Internet: www.eatwell.co.il

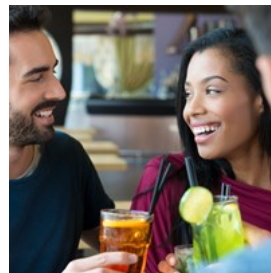

BARS & NIGHTLIFE

Ted Eytan/cc by-sa 2.0/Flickr (image cropped)

Tel Aviv is known as the party capital of the Middle East, and for good reason. The seaside location and pleasant climate mean that beach parties go on until dawn, and world-class clubs, bars and music venues draw huge crowds all year.

Minzar

Minzar is a great place to grab a beer or even sit down for a meal at a reasonable price any time of day. It's one of the oldest bars in town, and one that offers both in- and outdoor seating along with consistently good service.

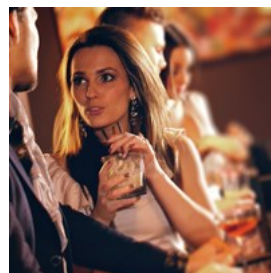

Photo: Rido/Shutterstock.com

Address: Allenby Street 60, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Opening hours: Daily 8am-4am. Thu & Fri around the clock

Phone: +972 3 517 3015

Mila

Mila is the right place to go if you'd like to take advantage of a 1+1 happy hour special in the area of Dizengoff. Every day from 5 pm to 9 pm — the happy hour — the bar gets fully packed with customers, the crowd spilling out from the bar's insides onto the street. Serves food alongside drinks.

Photo: Jacob Lund/Shutterstock.com

Address: Dizengoff Street 164, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Opening hours: Sat 5pm-3am, Fri 7:30pm-3am

Phone: +972 52 629 4966

Par Derrière

Enjoy the evening in a small hideaway with your significant other. Par Derrière offers seating in a romantic garden with a lovely atmosphere. Order your favourite Israeli wine and try out one of the cheese plates while enjoying this lovely wine bar.

Photo: Christopher Gardiner/Shutterstock.com

Address: Bat-Ami Street 7, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Phone: +972 3 629 2111

Dizzy Frishdon

A fun night out with excellent drinks and friendly staff is what Dizzy Frishdon has to offer. It's divided into 3 different bar areas, in- and outdoors. Spending your night out in this lounge-bar is not only fun but an entire experience. Locals and visitors mingle here freely.

Photo: Rawpixel.com/Shutterstock.com

Address: Dizengoff Street 112, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Phone: +972 3 523 4111

Internet: www.ontopo.co.il/en/dizzyfr

Kuli Alma

Chill outside on the outdoor terrace, spend the night firing up the dance-floor, or simply marvel at the awesome graffiti on the walls — all to tunes spun by an ever-changing line-up of local and international Djs. See website for schedules.

The labyrinthine Kuli Alma also hosts art exhibitions and serves vegetarian Israeli food.

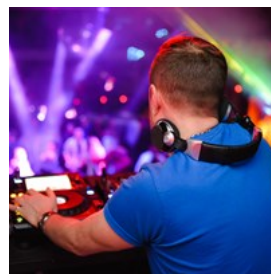

Photo: Pressmaster/Shutterstock.com

Address: Mikve Israel Street 10, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Phone: +972 3 656 5155

Internet: www.kulialma.com

The Breakfast Club

Lining up top DJs, this club has quickly become one of the top names in Tel Aviv's clubbing scene. Some parts of the place offer a more laid-back atmosphere and tasty food, but the Breakfast Club is really all about dancing and partying.

Photo: IVASHstudio / Shutterstock.com

Address: Rothschild Boulevard 6, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Opening hours: Wed-Sat 10pm-8am, Sun-Tue closed

Phone: +972 3 510 0101

Email: info@breakfast-milk.com

Haoman 17

Haoman 17 is perhaps one of the most spectacular and visually stunning clubs in the city, with gorgeous indoor and outdoor areas, a huge stage for all manner of events and performances and plenty of room for hundreds of people. It has been consistently rated one of the top night clubs in the world.

Photo: Vadim Ponomarenko / Shutterstock.com
Address: Abarbanel Street 15, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Phone: +972 3 681 3636
Internet: www.haoman17tlv.co.il
Email: haoman17.info@gmail.com

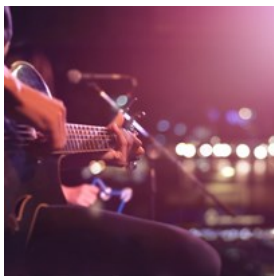

Shpagat

If it comes to gay nightlife in Tel Aviv, Shpagat is the number one place to go. Welcoming everyone, this club attracts not only locals but international travelers as well. Step in and enjoy a night-out in a high-school-gym-themed place with live music and great drinks.

Photo: Pressmaster / Shutterstock.com
Address: Nahalat Binyamin Street 43, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Levontin 7

Levontin 7 consists of not only a small and quirky bar-restaurant, but also a mini club and live music venue, as well. Talented local bands play covers and original songs. Enjoy their delicious vegan pizza!

Photo: PopTika / Shutterstock.com
Address: Lavontin Street 7, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Phone: +972 03 560 5084
Internet: www.levontin7.com
Email: levontin7@gmail.com

Bellboy Bar

Bellboy Bar has a unique vintage-style vibe and excellent service. Guests enjoy a fun laid-back atmosphere. Try their award-winning cocktails and creative Mediterranean cuisine.

Happy Hours everyday between 6 pm and 8 pm.

Photo: Maksim Fesenko / Shutterstock.com
Address: Berdichevsky Street 14, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Opening hours: Daily 6pm-late
Phone: +972 3 728 9213
Internet: www.bellboytlv.com
Email: info@bellboybar.com
More Info: Located in the lobby of the Hotel Berdichevsky

BuXa

BuXa is a bar, gallery, performance venue and a general gathering space for the artistic and alternative crowds of Tel Aviv. Grab a drink and enjoy the art hanging on the walls, browse through books and records or if you're lucky, catch a performance.

Photo: RODNAE Productions/pexels.com
Address: Rothschild Boulevard 31, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Duplex

Duplex Club is one of the largest party scenes of Tel Aviv. The building has two floors for all those who decide to party and keep dancing from dusk till dawn to music played by some of the best DJs.

Photo: Alexander Popov/unsplash.com
Address: HaShakh Street 10, Florentine, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Phone: +972 3 681 0786
Internet: www.duplexclub.co.il
Email: info@duplexclub.co.il

Silvia Bumper

Great food, excellent drinks, a chill atmosphere and awesome music — these are just a few of the things that Silvia Bumper offers its guests. Visitors will also find a pool table and screenings of major sporting events to accompany their drinks.

Photo: Monkey Business Images / Shutterstock.com
Address: Shlomo Ibn Gabirol Street 38, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Phone: +972 54 894 1171
Email: silviabumper@gmail.com

SHOPPING

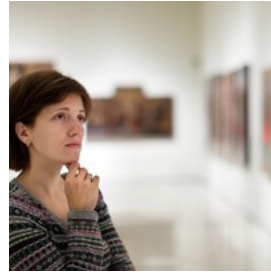

NikoEndres / Shutterstock.com

Shopping in Tel Aviv is ubiquitous and eclectic. From designer fashion by local and international brands, to second-hand and vintage clothes, to antiques and local delicacies — this city has it all.

Markets make up one of the most essential parts of everyday life in Tel Aviv, and should not be missed, both for the experience and the great finds.

Stern Gallery

Stern Gallery attracts its visitors with high quality classic and contemporary Israeli art. It is a great place to pick up a genuine treasure of a souvenir, a beautiful and unique piece by a talented local artist.

Photo: Iakov Filimonov / Shutterstock.com
Address: J. L. Gordon Street 30, Tel Aviv
Phone: +972 3 524 6303
Internet: www.sterngallery.art
Email: info@sternart.com

Carmel Market

Carmel Market, or Shuk Ha'Carmel as the locals call it, is a place where you can find locals doing their everyday shopping. The market has become an attraction for tourists as well, but it is lovely for everyone just to take a walk through the market, shop for breakfast, find your favourite fruit or drink some freshly made juice.

Photo: Yehudit Garinkol / Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)
Address: HaCarmel Street 48, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Opening hours: Sun–Fri 8am–6pm
Internet: www.touristisrael.com/carmel-market-tel-aviv/4433

Jaffa Flea Market

Jaffa Flea Market has a lot to offer. Take a walk around the flea market — right in the middle of Jaffa — and find something for yourself among all the antiques and handmade products they have on offer. Even after the market is closed, it is nice to hang out in the restaurants and cafes just around the corner.

Photo: RonAlmog/cc by 2.0/Flickr(image cropped)

Address: Olei Zion Street, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Dizengoff Centre

Dizengoff Centre is the perfect place to stop by to do your shopping, go to a spa, have lunch or even spend some time with your kids at the indoor play centre. The mall has more than 400 shops to choose from, as well as a cinema and other facilities.

Photo: SilviaMollova/cc by-sa 3.0/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)

Address: Dizengoff Center, Tel Aviv

Phone: +972 3 621 2400

Internet: www.dizengof-center.co.il

Email: info@nihul-dc.co.il

Levinsky Market

Levinsky Market is a Tel Aviv institution, a paradise for foodies and a unique visit for tourists. Spices, nuts, dried fruits and fragrant herbs from around the world fill the stalls, showcasing the multicultural culinary scene in the city.

The market runs along Levinsky Street, from HaAliya Street to HaMashbir Street.

Photo: אריאל רואל/רואל/רואל/cc by 2.5/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)

Address: Levinsky Street, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Internet: www.touristisrael.com/levinsky-market/15942

Shuk Hanamal — Tel Aviv Port Market

Shuk Hanamal is the place to get fresh ingredients for your breakfast. Or even better — have your breakfast here. There are tons of shops, cafes and restaurants along the side of the market where tourists can sit down and take a break while chilling and have some champagne.

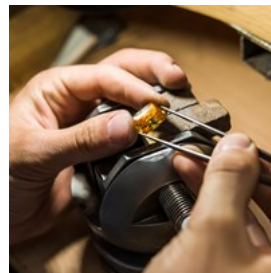

Photo: Stefano Zocca/unsplash.com

Address: 12 Hangar, Tel Aviv

Opening hours: Sun 9am-4pm, Mon-Thu 9am-8pm, Fri 7am-5pm, Sat 9am-8pm

Internet: www.shukhanamal.co.il

Adina Plastelina

Located in one of the most popular areas of the city, Adina Plastelina is a great place to stop by and pick some handmade jewellery, colourful earrings, necklaces or bracelets for your significant other, your friends or family members or even for yourself.

Photo: Luibov Luganskaia / Shutterstock.com

Address: Netiv HaMazalot 23, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Phone: +972 3 518 7894

Internet: www.adinaplastelina.com

Email: info@adinaplastelina.com

Tel Aviv Antiques Market

On Tuesdays and Fridays it is imperative for everyone to visit the Antiques Market in Tel Aviv. Take a look around all the handicrafts, secondhand goods and unique items right in the heart of this beautiful city.

The market used to take place on Dizengoff Square, but now has moved to Givon Square. You will find the stalls close to the Tel Aviv Cinematheque on HaArba'a Street.

Photo: Mats Hagwall/unsplash.com
Address: Givon Square, Tel Aviv
Opening hours: Fri 8:30am-3:30pm

M. Pollak Maps

Stop by this little treasure chest and find yourself an antique map to hang up at home. Not only maps but rare books, prints and original prints can all be found at M. Pollak — a great place to find truly unique items.

Photo: Viktor Forgacs/unsplash.com
Address: King George Street 42, Tel Aviv
Phone: +972 3 528 1336
Email: info@pollakmaps.com

Maskit

Maskit is one of the most beloved luxury brands among women in Israel, with a long history to support it. Launched back in 1954, it has consistently provided cutting-edge fashion items for over 60 years.

Photo: MaxFrost / Shutterstock.com
Address: HaTsorfim Street 14, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Phone: +972 3 688 4004
Internet: www.maskit.com
Email: studio@maskit.com

Yaniv Fine Jewelry

Using the finest materials, Yaniv Fine Jewelry has become one of the most popular places to buy jewellery in the beautiful city of Tel Aviv. In their studio and workshop the work never stops, and they are ready to welcome visitors anytime.

Photo: Milles Studio / Shutterstock.com
Address: Ben Yehuda Street 113, Tel Aviv
Phone: +972 3 522 7682
Internet: www.yanivjewelry.co.il
Email: info@yanivjewelry.co.il

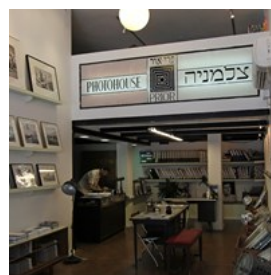

Sarona Market

Sarona has an indoor market where you can find a huge variety of shops and restaurants. It is a little green island of peace in the middle of the busy city of Tel Aviv. Walking around the market area you will find cheese stands, bread counters, a butcher and a lot more treasure to lighten up your day.

Photo: Avi1111/cc by-sa 4.0/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)
Address: Kalman Magen Street 3, Tel Aviv
Phone: +972 03 624 24 24
Internet: www.saronamarket.co.il

The PhotoHouse

The PhotoHouse contains one of the largest archives of historical photographs in Israel. Enjoy the exhibitions or purchase one of your favourites from the gift shop and take home an immortalised piece of Israeli history.

Photo: Elke Wetzig/cc by-sa 3.0/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)

Address: Tchernichovsky Street 5, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Phone: +972 3 517 7916

Internet: www.thephotohouse.co.il

Email: info@thephotohouse.co.il

Nahalat Binyamin Art Market

The Nahalat Binyamin Art Market is a huge arts and crafts fair, the largest of its kind in Israel and one of the most beautiful in the world. Within the spacious area you can find hand-made goods and designs, live music and great places to stop for a coffee.

Photo: דבורליצ / cc by 2.5/Wikimedia Commons(image cropped)

Address: Nahalat Binyamin Street, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Opening hours: Tue & Fri 10am-5pm

Internet: www.nachlat-binyamin.com

Email: info@nachalatbinyamin-tlv.com

Zielinski & Rozen Perfumerie

An artisanal perfume house dating back to 1905, Zielinski & Rozen sells a wide array of fragrances: perfumes, body and hair lotions, but also face creams, Red Sea salt, candles and diffusers for your home, with cedar wood, patchouli and jasmine being only a few examples of their aromas. They also offer delivery services through their website.

Photo: Sompop Dechpisuttitham/Shutterstock.com

Address: 5 Olei Zion Street, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Phone: +972 54 615 7704

Internet: www.zielinskiandrozen.com

TOURIST INFORMATION

vvvita / Shutterstock.com

Ben Gurion Airport (TLV)

Ben Gurion Airport is the main international airport serving Tel Aviv, located 19 km to the southeast of the city. David Ben-Gurion was the primary national founder of the State of Israel and the first Prime Minister of Israel.

To travel to the city centre from the airport you can use the national bus company called Egged bus. There are two locations where you can take the bus from. One is the Airport City and the other is the Ben Gurion Airport — arrival and departure terminals.

The second way to travel from the airport is by train. Israel Railways operates the Ben Gurion Airport Railway Station, located in the lower level of Terminal 3. The train goes to the north-west of Tel Aviv, Haifa and other destinations in the north, south-east to Modi'in, or south to Beersheba via Lod, Kiryat Gat and Lehavim. The journey to Tel Aviv Savidor Central Railway Station takes around 18 minutes.

The taxi service from the airport is provided under the supervision of the Israel Airport Authority. Passengers are recommended to avoid the use of non-authorized taxi services. The taxi stations are located in front of the Terminal on Level G, near the exit through Gate 01.

Photo: Juan Garces

Address: Ben Gurion Airport, Tel Aviv

Phone: +972 3 975 8303

Internet: www.iaa.gov.il/en

More Info: Commonly known by its Hebrew acronym as Natbag

Passport / Visa

To visit Israel you need a passport valid for at least six months from the date of entry. If you hold an Israeli passport, you will be required to present it upon arrival.

Many countries have a Visa Waiver Program with Israel, which allows their citizens to visit Israel without a pre-arranged visa. Citizens of Australia, Canada, the EU, and the USA do not need a visa for touristic stays up to 90 days. Citizens of other countries can check if they need a visa using the website of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Because of diplomatic issues, you might not be able to travel to some Arab or predominantly Muslim countries if your passport shows an Israeli visa or stamp. To solve this problem, your visa will be stamped on a separate entry card when you arrive in Israel.

Remember to bring your passport with you on trips to Palestinian territories: it will probably be required at checkpoints and border crossings.

Photo: TukTuk Design/Shutterstock.com

Internet: www.gov.il/en/subjects/certificates_and_passports/tourist_visas

Best Time to Visit

The best months to visit Tel Aviv are March through April and September through November, as spring and fall bring reasonable and pleasant temperatures as well as the lowest prices. Moreover, during this period you will avoid the tourist crowds, so you can fully enjoy outdoor cafes and markets.

However, if you are heading to Tel Aviv for your summer holidays, then May to August is your time. The sun is bright and warm and the Mediterranean is perfect for a swim. Remember to book at least two months in advance, as this is the peak tourist season.

Photo: VectorA/Shutterstock.com

Public Transport

Buses: The main public bus company that operates in Tel Aviv is called Dan and the national bus operator is Egged. Most buses in Tel

Aviv do not run on Shabbat (from Friday mid-afternoon until Saturday night). The shared taxi busses called "sherut" continue to run. Instead of regular busses, the Tel Aviv-Yafo Municipality runs free busses during Shabbat.

Tickets and Fares:

There are discounts for children, senior citizens and the disabled. You can either buy single rides, monthly subsections or an all-in-one public transportation pass. Tickets and passes can be obtained on the bus or at central bus stations.

Trains:

Tel Aviv-Yafo has four train stations, all of which are situated along the Ayalon highway. All trains to Tel Aviv-Yafo stop at all four stations. For best access to the city centre, use either Tel Aviv Savidor Merkaz (also known as Arlozorov), or HaShalom, which is located in a large shopping mall.

Photo: Pierre-Luc Auclair

Internet: www.touristisrael.com/using-the-bus-in-tel-aviv

Taxi

Taxis in Israel are relatively cheap by European standards. In the city, drivers must use the meter (moneh) unless they agree a fixed fare with the passenger. Inter-city taxis have fixed fares.

You will have to pay extra for calling a taxi, your luggage, for going from the Ben Gurion airport. Night rates are 25% higher and you will often be asked to pay more on Friday and Saturday during Shabbat.

Probably the most convenient way to get around Tel Aviv is by using a taxi app like Gett (formerly GetTaxi) or Uber.

Photo: ArrivalGuides

Internet: www.touristisrael.com/taxis-in-israel

Pharmacy

You can find several pharmacies all over Tel Aviv, but most of them are closed on Saturdays.

Photo: Gemma Garner

Address: Super-Pharm, Jerusalem Boulevard 49, Tel Aviv-Yafo

Opening hours: Sun-Thu 8am-10:30pm, Fri 8am-5:30pm, Sat 8am-11pm

Phone: +972 77 888 1300

Internet: www.super-pharm.co.il

Telephone

Country code: +972 Area code: 3

Photo: Jardson Almeida

Electricity

Israel operates on a 230V supply voltage and 50Hz. You will usually find plug type C (two round pins, common in Europe). You can also see plug H (three pins in a triangular shape), which is compatible with type C.

Photo: Stirling Tschan

Population

467,875 (2021)

Currency

Israeli new shekel (NIS), 1 shekel = 100 agorot

Opening hours

Shops: Sunday to Thursday 9 am to 7 pm

Markets: Sunday to Thursday 6:30 am to 7 pm

Most shops close around 2 pm on Friday

Internet

visit.tel-aviv.gov.il

Newspapers

Israel HaYom (Israel Today) – free national newspaper in Hebrew and English – www.israelhayom.com

Yedioth Ahronoth (Latest News) – www.yediot.co.il

Haaretz (The Land) – www.haaretz.com

Emergency numbers

Police: 100

Emergency Medical Services: 101

Fire and Rescue: 102

Tourist information

Tourist Information Centers

Jaffa – 2 Marzuk and Azar St. Open 9am–6pm.

Boardwalk – 46 Herbert Samuel St. Open 9am–6pm.

Independence Trail – 11 Rothschild Blvd. Open 9am–9pm.

Sarona – 11 Aluf Mandler St. Open 9am–6pm.

Frishman Beach – Tel Aviv Promenade Open 11am–5pm.