Zaragoza, the capital of Spain's Aragon region, has a privileged location, equally distanced from Madrid, Barcelona, Valencia and Bilbao. The city is connected by an international airport and a high-speed railway line (AVE). Visitors can expect a delicious gastronomy and a rich heritage of historical monuments: Basilica del Pilar, Cathedral of San Salvador, Aljafería Palace, the paintings of Goya or the Mudejar-UNESCO Heritage of Mankind. Local architecture combines Islamic and Gothic styles — an absolute must-see.

THE CITY

RossHelen/Shutterstock.com

Iberians, Romans, Muslims, Jews and Christians left their mark in the city along more than 2,000 years of history.

The Baroque grandiosity can be admired in the Basilica del Pilar; Aljafería Palace, the most northerly Arab Palace in Europe, magnificent examples of aragonese Mudéjar art, a World Heritage Site; the height of the Gothic period can be seen in the Cathedral of San Salvador... From the paintings of Goya to the latest expressions of urban painting, from the Roman Theatre to contemporary dance, from centenarian retail establishments to alternative approaches to retailing can be found in the city. After the 2008 International Exposition "Water and sustainable development", Zaragoza has emerged as an innovative city with modern and renovated infrastructures.

Art, theatre, tapas, concerts, shopping, design, history, the banks of the Ebro river, ... Zaragoza has a lot to offer.

TOP 5

CULTURAL EVENTS

Corrado Baratta/Shutterstock.com

In Zaragoza, there is a great range of cultural events that take place all year long. Therefore, on visiting Zaragoza, it is worthwhile setting apart time for enjoying its varied cultural programme.

Theatres such as the Principal, the Theatre of the Mercado, the Theatre of the Estación and the Theatre of Las esquinas, dozens of concert halls and even the last Singing Café remaining in Europe, El Plata, together with International Urban Painting Festivals such as Asalto or Trayectos.

As the cutting edge of the most exported and dearest Zaragoza are the Fiestas del Pilar, which are celebrated in October in the streets fervently. Another festivity that can not be missed is the Holy Week, declared as an International Tourist Interest.

Fiestas del Pilar

The cutting edge of the most exported and dearest Zaragoza are the Fiestas del Pilar, characterised by a broad range of activities that fill the streets with fun, colour and entertainment for a week at the least.

During the Fiestas del Pilar, Zaragoza becomes the centre of national, and even global attention. For ten days in October, Zaragoza is bursting with festivities and filled with fun: the squares of the Historical Quarter become emblematic stages for any kind of cultural and fun activities for all kind of public.

The grand act of the Fiestas del Pilar is the Flower Offering to the Virgin of the Pilar on October the 12th. A unique act in the world which impresses the visitors.

Urban Art

Zaragoza has become a leader in the national and international scene of street art with the Asalto Festival. It has managed to change the appearance of the streets of Zaragoza and how to understand public space. The city is flooded with avant-garde, shocking, and shared artistic proposals developed on-site for artistic collectives and urban artists.

It's not only an urban arts festival, is a hallmark of a city more and more cosmopolitan, dynamic and participatory. It is a project of urban and social transformation through culture in which the streets, the city and its citizens are the real protagonists along with best urban local, national and international artists that year after year want to be part of the Asalto family.

City of International Festivals

As a sample of the intense cultural activity of Zaragoza all year long, the city has become the venue of several international festivals, such as Trayectos, Asalto, Slap!, Lagata Reggae, FIZ, the Jazz Festival or the new ZGZ Escena.

In June, takes place Trayectos, the festival that connects the urban landscapes of the city with contemporary dance. This Festival integrates the expression art in the city, so that make Zaragoza a scenario and a living space that inspires the creators and favours the meeting of citizen and contemporary dance.

In July, the turn is for Slap!, the black music Festival and Lagata Reggae Festival, both held in the Zaragoza's campsite. As a novelty for this year in July, it has born the "ZGZ Escena Festival", the new performing arts international festival, born to be a driver of the culture and economy of Zaragoza.

After Summer and before the Pilar Festivities, the FIZ Festival arrives, for the alternative music.
